

CHINESE KILL S.A. WOMAN'S BROTHER

Weather Forecast

Fair tonight and Sunday, but morning fog near coast; no change in temperature; moderate northwest wind.

FASTEST GROWING NEWSPAPER IN SOUTHLAND

VOL. 3, NO. 91

Except Sunday
Published Every Afternoon

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1937

65c Per Month
By Mail or Carrier

Home Edition

For radio news of this vicinity and world tune in on KVOE (1500 Kc.), 8:30 a. m.; 4:30, 9 p. m.

TELEPHONE 3600
FOR ALL DEPARTMENTS

3 CENTS PER COPY

Santa Ana Journal

More and More People Are Reading The Journal—It's More Interesting!

SEEK POLE FLIERS; MWD BOOSTS TAXES

SKINNY KRIBBLES

Around
And About Town

With
C. F.
(Skirvin)
SKIRVIN

The automobile horn, if I have the proper conception of it, is for use in and for emergencies, but when adapted as a social convenience, especially at the discomfort of others, then it becomes a nuisance, at least to those annoyed. So the promiscuous blowing of the horn to notify "sweetie" that the boy friend has arrived, and for her to come hither, is to be discouraged by the police force, and more power to them in their enforcement. Honking a horn doesn't require any particular skill or unusual intellectual attainment. The music lacks melody and fails to take the place of a lullaby. The more infrequently I hear it the better I like it. And along about midnight when the riotous spirit seeks to commune with the hobgoblins, the use of the horn may sound sweet to the fellow pressing the button, but it's a nightmare to the tired soul who hopes to accumulate enough strength to carry him through the tomorrow.

This story should have gone to Ripley: Customer goes to sleep in barber chair, and I can believe that, but when the same fellow tells me about a customer going to sleep in a dentist's chair, that's imposing upon my credulity, viewed in the light of personal experience. So, Mr. Ripley, you take it.

I don't mind if gum is "chewed," but when it attaches itself to my shoes then I think differently about it. And if you carry it into the house, well, that's more conversation. Gum put Wrigley on the map, but it put many a husband in the dog house.

The Gowdys—both of 'em—are headin' south. Been to the Legion convention in Stockton, and in Paso Robles 5:10 p. m., indicating time to feed. Opportunity too remote for a visit to my almond ranch—so Max just says "that to you," which has one meaning to me and another to you. But he can't fuss me about the almond crop this year, there really is one.

Local man talks to me about "big politics" and puts up a good analysis of what happens "back there" and what it means "here," but the conversation is so full of record, therefore I am not permitted to give you an interesting sidelight to political ramifications which few would interpret as having any local significance whatever. Frank Kent can talk from the record, and I can't even talk off the record. Being one of the old-time newspaper men a confidence is a confidence. So after "it happens" I can at least tell you I knew it all the time. Ever meet those kind of guys?

This is the day they give dollars away, but the Santa Ana merchant insisted you take away more merchandise than your dollar is worth. It is dollar day in Santa Ana, and there was a steady mutual exchange between the business man and the customer. Appearances in (Please turn to Page 2, Column 1)

'Happy Days Here Again,' S. A. Bank President Predicts

Business conditions will be good in Santa Ana this fall and next year. Expressing optimism over the outlook, President A. I. Mellenthin of the First National bank predicted a wave of recovery following the winter frost that will place activity on a new high plane.

"A good year is in prospect for agriculture. Business has gone ahead despite labor troubles," he told members of the Realty board yesterday afternoon.

The banker based his forecast on figures from the financial institution which he heads and upon a nationwide survey of forces pointing toward recovery.

Seven factors making for improved conditions he listed as:

An abundant crop with high prices; improved statistical situation in many industries; well-sustained level of consumer purchasing power; rising trend of international trading; improved sentiment following adjournment of congress; stimulated buying of capital goods; a let down in labor troubles.

On the basis of figures from the First National bank, the local condition looks bright, Mellenthin stated. Savings accounts have increased the past two or three years, bank debits have increased, and various local business accounts have shown a decided raise, he said.

In 1937, bank debits for the local institution has increased approximately $35,250,000, or a daily increase of $29,000. In the last three months alone, the increase has been $458,000, he said.

The furniture business has shown the largest percentage of increase in accounts the past year. It has been 22 per cent better than a year ago, while the jewelry stores have shown a 19 per cent increase.

Forty per cent of the jewelry store advance has been from the repair departments alone, he said. Many people are having old jewelry modernized, which is partially accountable for the advance.

Dry goods stores show a 14 per cent raise, while shoe stores have realized a 6 per cent gain. Others which have shown a gain in the past year are the grocery stores, 11 per cent; and drug stores, 10 per cent. President Earl B. Hawks introduced Mellenthin to the board.

ASSURE BLACK SANTA ANA TO NOMINATION PAY $97,236

WASHINGTON (AP)—Statements from a majority of the members of the senate judiciary committee assured today a favorable report, probably Monday, on the nomination of Senator Black (D., Ala.) to the supreme court.

Ten committee members said they would vote to confirm the liberal Alabamian, co-sponsor of the administration wage-hour bill. Three members were definitely opposed, while four others still were noncommittal. Two of these were leaning toward confirmation.

Despite this line-up and 5-1 approval yesterday by a sub-committee, the battle over Black's nomination was far from ended. A little group in the senate was combing his record and looking up legal precedents of use against confirmation.

13 Couples To Take Chance

The courthouse marriage license bureau celebrated Friday the Thirtieth yesterday in suitable fashion. Thirteen applications for marriage licenses were issued.

FAINT RADIO 'SOS' CALL RECEIVED

Mattern, 3 Alaskan Planes to Rescue

SEATTLE (AP)—The probability that Sigismund Levanefsky and his five Russian companions are safe somewhere in the vast Arctic wastes between Alaska and the north pole were seen here today when the signal corps station at Anchorage reported intercepting the first word from the plane in nearly 28 hours.

It reported the code message, heard at 9:44 a. m. (eastern standard time) was only partly readable and translated with the unreadable blanks, stated: "No bearings... having trouble with... wave bands."

The signal corps Alaska communications system, which made the press announcement, stated:

MESSAGE TOLD
"Following message the first message which has been received from the plane since 2:40 a. m. the 13th, was intercepted by signal corps station at Anchorage. "Plane heard very weak, calling R D Y W approximately 9080 kilocycles at 6:44 (P.S.T.).

It was not known whether the plane could send wireless messages while on the ground or was fitted with equipment only usable while aloft.

A wireless message received at 8:25 a. m. from Fairbanks, where the big four-motored plane and its party of six were to halt and refuel en route from Moscow to Oakland, said everyone at the airport there still was on watch and there had been no contact with the plane.

SEARCH PLANNED
An earlier message stated airmen there were considering the possibilities of an aerial search between Fairbanks and the pole on the route of the plane's projected 4100 mile flight to the interior Alaska city.

It also stated weather observers and wireless operators were continuing to send out weather reports every three hours on the chance the plane could hear them.

Latest reports from Point Barrow indicated a dense fog still hanging low over that section of the Alaskan Arctic coast. Barrow is approximately 175 miles east of the Russians' scheduled route down the 248th meridian.

THREE PLANES START ON ARCTIC SEARCH

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP)—Three airplanes carrying Russian North pole flight representatives dashed from Fairbanks today in search of the six Soviet fliers who were believed lost but safe somewhere in the vast unexplored Arctic wastes.

The planes roared away in fan-shape, traveling eastward, northward and westward.

Veteran Joe Crosson, hero of several Far North "mercy flights" was the first to leave in a giant 12-place wheeled plane. He was accompanied by Murray Hall, copilot, and they headed northward, following the 148th meridian which was the route of Pilot Sigismund Levanefsky and his five Russian companions who disappeared in an attempt to reach Fairbanks on a flight over the (Continued on Page 2, Column 2)

Breaks Shoulder Dodging Auto

Andrew Blackwell, Los Angeles youth, yesterday suffered a fractured clavicle in his left shoulder when his front wheel caught in a root while trying to avoid being hit by an oncoming car, according to a report at the sheriff's office. Believed at first to have been struck by the automobile, young Blackwell was knocked unconscious. When he regained consciousness, he hailed a car which took him to La Vida Hot springs. He was taken to Dr. Glenn Curtis who treated his injuries.

2nd Sinking Canyon Forms

BUHL, Idaho (AP)—A new "sinking canyon" has formed within the past 24 hours in this productive section of agricultural Southern Idaho.

The new canyon dropped 75 feet in a single day. It is adjacent to the original depression which in two weeks sank between 175 and 200 feet.

The new area is approximately 20 feet wide and 75 feet long. Crevices are continuing to open up to the accompaniment of subterranean blasts and rising columns of dust.

Before Air Raider Struck

Instantly killed by a fragment from a bomb hurled from the skies into the streets of Shanghai, Dr. Frank J. Rawlinson, above with his wife, was a world-famous missionary, whose sister, Mrs. Annie Hunt, lives in this city. His wife was with him when death came today. To the right is a picture of Mrs. Hunt, who was given the tragic news of her brother's death today by The Journal.

WEST URGES BUDGET CUT

Also Favors Salary
Boost for County Force

A budget slash of $39,000 and an average increase in county salaries of 5 per cent were proposed today by Supervisor N. E. West, as the board prepared to take up Monday or Tuesday the much-discussed revision of courthouse salaries.

West's plan would provide a net budget slash of $71,500—a dip of almost 4 cents in the proposed county tax rate of 88 cents for cities, while adding materially to the pay of lower-bracket courthouse employees and trimming slightly the higher pay checks of department heads.

"These are my recommendations," West said today, "and they differ from those made by Supervisor Mitchell, but they will all be considered when we start work on the salaries next week."

West and Mitchell form a supervisory committee to revise county salaries. Mitchell's recommendations were submitted to individual members of the board four weeks ago.

West's plan would lop $52,000 off the unbudgeted reserve which was tentatively fixed at $277,000; $20,000 off the fund for sponsoring WPA projects, which had been set at $50,000; $7,000 off the agricultural department's budget of $90,000 and $10,000 off the $15,000 proposed expenditures for the juvenile home.

The juvenile home cut would cause abandonment of the proposed building project there, instead a coordinating council plan of care in private homes for some children who otherwise would be mingled with the more hardened juvenile offenders.

Auto Theft Case Comes Up Aug. 23

Preliminary hearing for Johnny V. Calderon and Jesus Martinez on a grand theft charge has been set for Thursday, Aug. 23 in justice court. They are accused of stealing an automobile from S. K. Rich along with other effects.

The youths are said to have confessed to the theft which occurred yesterday morning.

PLANE OVERDUE

VICTORIA, B. C. (Canadian Press)—British Columbia police today reported a plane operated by the United Air Transport had failed to arrive at Fort Nelson. The plane left Pouce Coupe yesterday.

WAGE-HOUR BILL BLOCKED

WASHINGTON (AP)—An unprecedented impasse in the powerful rules committee impelled almost everybody but the house leadership to concede today that the administration wage-hour bill is pigeon-holed for this session.

The leaders insisted publicly they would not give up until the adjournment gavel falls in a week or 10 days.

Nevertheless, the rules committee—normally considered part of the house leadership—kept the bill bottled up despite what opponents of the legislation termed "terrific pressure."

It was believed the first time in congressional history that the committee had blocked a major administration bill.

School Warrants Being Called

With school district funds fortified with approximately $300,000 in state money, Acting County Superintendent of Schools Arthur Corey today began calling in 6 per cent registered warrants issued by the financially-embarassed districts.

Included in the first class, which Corey issued today, were Huntington Beach, Newport and Placentia. Interest on the warrants ceases the day they are advertised for collection. Henceforth districts will register their warrants with County Treasurer T. E. Stephenson, thereby saving 1 per cent since warrants registered in the treasurer's office bear 5 per cent interest.

Gets 6 Months For Taking Time

Mrs. Marion Rurup will spend six months in the county jail on burglary charges, then be on probation for a year.

These were terms of a sentence yesterday by Superior Judge James L. Allen. Her husband, Clarence, is awaiting a probation hearing on the same charge. Both pleaded guilty.

The Santa Ana couple was charged with breaking into a Chinese home a month ago and stealing a watch.

Noted Missionary Victim of Bomb In Shanghai Fight

By KENNETH ADAMS

Violent death in war-torn China today flashed a message of sorrow across the ocean to Santa Ana to chill the hearts of close relatives of Dr. Frank J. Rawlinson, one of the outstanding missionaries in China. Dr. Rawlinson died horribly in a terrific bombing in Shanghai this afternoon. First news of the tragedy was brought to his sister, Mrs. Annie Hunt of Santa Ana, today by The Journal. Mrs. Hunt, wife of S. W. Hunt, prominent dairyman whose ranch is just south of First street on Newhope road, took the tragic blow with the resignation possible only to those with a deep-seated religious background. She is the daughter of a minister.

HAD PREMONITION
Mrs. Hunt told The Journal the tragic news was not entirely unexpected. Last night she had a premonition that all was not well with her brother. The fact that gripped her heart was fulfilled today.

Dr. Rawlinson and H. S. Honisberg, wealthy motorcar dealer, met death as Chinese bombing planes supposedly aiming at Japanese concentrations, dumped their death-dealing missiles into a crowded downtown area in Shanghai, killing hundreds. Dr. Rawlinson and Honisberg died in the bombing on Avenue Edward VII, at one of the busiest intersections of the city, where an estimated 300, mostly Chinese, were slain.

Two or more Americans were wounded in a Shanghai Saturday of suffering that drove scores of others from their homes. Every one of the 4000 Americans in the bleeding international community was in grave peril.

The Americans were drawn into the tragic vortex of the undeclared yet undisputed Chinese-Japanese war when the war broke out in the Chinese government, aroused at long last, struck back at the Japanese foe.

Three recklessly-dropped Chinese bombs plunged into densely packed street intersections of Shanghai's foreign areas. Apparently they were aimed at Japanese warships on the nearby Whangpoo (Continued on Page 2, Column 5)

STRUCK IN CHEST
Dr. Rawlinson, 66, with his wife and 15-year-old daughter, Jean, was motoring past the intersection when the bombshell fell. He stopped his car and stepped out to be struck in the chest by a bomb fragment. He died at once.

Mrs. Rawlinson, although suffering from shellshock, drove the car to the foreign mortuary, turned over the body of her husband and then collapsed. Jean was not hurt. Bernhard Covit, American who witnessed the killing of the brother of the Santa Ana woman, gave this account of the scene:

WITNESS TELLS STORY
Bernhard Covit, formerly of Brooklyn, N. Y., who witnessed the bombing on Avenue Edward VII, gave this account of the scene:

"I walked into the square formed by Edward VII and Thibet Road just after two Chinese bombs fell in the center of the avenue, forming a huge hole, which was quickly filled with water. The pavement had been torn up in long strips.

"Mangled and mutilated bodies of some 300, apparently Chinese, were lying in the water. I counted at least 12 automobiles burned (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

While investigation of the latest slaying centered about the story of a 39-year-old WPA project painter who told police he found the body, Mayor F. H. La Guardia and Police Commissioner Lewis J. Valentine drew plans for a new bureau to keep all known degenerates under continual surveillance.

Police persisted in their questioning of the WPA painter, Samuel Elmore, who told them he found the nude, strangled, and ravished body of four-year-old Joan Kuleba in the basement of an abandoned shack in a swamp near South Beach, Staten Island, yesterday.

These were terms of a sentence yesterday by Superior Judge James L. Allen. Her husband, Clarence, is awaiting a probation hearing on the same charge. Both pleaded guilty.

BANK ROBBER DIVES TO DEATH

ST. PAUL, (AP)—Clair Gibson, bank robber, killed himself today by plunging down an airway from the third to the first floor of the Ramsey county jail. He died shortly after he was taken to a hospital.

Arrested in Roseburg, Ore., Gibson was returned to Minnesota by federal authorities. Last Wednesday in federal court in Minneapolis he was sentenced to 40 years in prison and waived extradition to Hancock county, Iowa, where he was wanted for murder.

FOUR ELECTROCUTED
SAINT JOHN, N. B. (Canadian Press)—Four workmen were electrocuted today at suburban Martin when well drilling equipment they were carrying came in contact with high voltage lines of the New Brunswick Electric Power Commission.

My aunt happened to get ahold of my cousin's Boy Scout manual one time and she got so fascinated with the chapter on how to render first aid that she prepared for days on her to put on a bandage. I'll never forget how thrilled she was the day they went on a picnic and my cousin broke his leg. My aunt was so happy that she knew just what to do.

She grabbed grandpa's cane, with it in half to make two splints and then she tore off her petticoat to make the bandage and she went to work and made the prettiest bandage you ever saw. She figured they didn't need a doctor for the boy but she called a doctor in just so she could show off the bandage. When the doctor looked at the bandage and asked who put it on, my aunt stepped forward and proudly says, "I did. What do you think of it?" The doctor says, "It's a perfect job. I never saw one prettier, but," he says, "you only made one little mistake. You bandaged the wrong leg!" (Copyright, 1937)

I'll Tell You

By BOB BURNS

Almost every important undertaking has to be guided by an experienced hand. The finest group of actors in Hollywood would make a pretty terrible mess of the job if they didn't have an intelligent director, and the finest digger of irrigation ditches in the world has to have an engineer show him where to dig the ditch.

My aunt happened to get ahold of my cousin's Boy Scout manual one time and she got so fascinated with the chapter on how to render first aid that she prepared for days on her to put on a bandage. I'll never forget how thrilled she was the day they went on a picnic and my cousin broke his leg. My aunt was so happy that she knew just what to do.

She grabbed grandpa's cane, with it in half to make two splints and then she tore off her petticoat to make the bandage and she went to work and made the prettiest bandage you ever saw. She figured they didn't need a doctor for the boy but she called a doctor in just so she could show off the bandage. When the doctor looked at the bandage and asked who put it on, my aunt stepped forward and proudly says, "I did. What do you think of it?" The doctor says, "It's a perfect job. I never saw one prettier, but," he says, "you only made one little mistake. You bandaged the wrong leg!" (Copyright, 1937)

Wild Time for 30 Minutes—

A kidnapping scare upset the otherwise peaceful community of Buena Park yesterday afternoon, and resulted in the hasty organization of vigilante bodies, searching parties and patrol groups.

The 2-year-old granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Parish, 217 Court street, was the object of the intensive search for an extended half hour or more. They reported that the infant had disappeared, and the community was galvanized into action.

Automobile loads of excited residents began touring the community, incoming and departing motorists were eyed suspiciously, and there was talk about vengeance for the man who stole the child away from the security of her bed.

Keenly in the minds of the residents was etched the many reports of child-abductions of past weeks and months. They wanted no such crimes in Buena Park, and were determined to solve the mysterious disappearance of the youngster in short order.

Then someone summoned Deputy Sheriff A. W. Fullerton. He sped to Buena Park, surveyed the situation, asked questions about the child's habits and where she played, and decided to look the Parish house over to find a possible clue. She might have been taken through a window. He peered around, opened this door and that, entered one room after another. Finally, he opened a closet door.

There the youngster was, sound asleep.

The new canyon dropped 75 feet in a single day. It is adjacent to the original depression which in two weeks sank between 175 and 200 feet.

The new area is approximately 20 feet wide and 75 feet long. Crevices are continuing to open up to the accompaniment of subterranean blasts and rising columns of dust.

The youths are said to have confessed to the theft which occurred yesterday morning.

These were terms of a sentence yesterday by Superior Judge James L. Allen. Her husband, Clarence, is awaiting a probation hearing on the same charge. Both pleaded guilty.

The Santa Ana couple was charged with breaking into a Chinese home a month ago and stealing a watch.

CHANGE IN COUNTY AND SETUP SEEN

'Reorganization' Is Hinted by Director

Welfare Director Jack W. Snow admitted today that "a reorganization is due" in his department, following recent resignations of division chiefs.

Latest to resign was Miss Kathryn Adams, who joined the county welfare department Jan. 9, four days after Snow took office. She worked with him on the state relief administration, and served him as his case supervisor. Selmon H. Martin, assistant director, who was appointed Jan. 18, resigned early this week. Both these resignations are effective Sept. 1.

A few months ago, William Penn, a city councilman, quit the department for a job with a title company. He was head of the property investigation department.

Snow declined comment on what changes he had in mind, but said some were due. He added, however, that he did not expect any additional resignations.

Rumors persisted today that Mrs. Belle J. Spangler would become Snow's chief assistant. She is head of the intake department. He refused to comment on report of her possible advancement.

SKINNY SKRIBBLES

(Continued from Page 1)

dictated a lively acceptance on the part of the buyer and ample preparation of the part of the seller. None of that caveat emptor stuff. All the cards on the table—face up.

Wasn't able to talk to a single former Iowan today. All of 'em over to Long Beach telling each other how tall the corn grows, and other stories—some of them bordering on the exaggeration. But they will all insist they had a good time.

Several local attorneys vacationing at Catalina were home Friday. That's probate day, when the court makes distributions and other decisions, some of them having a direct and others an indirect bearing on vacations. You can't get much joy out of a vacation unless you have something substantial to sustain the vacation.

Paul Witmer is back from a fishing trip—other than political. This time, with the assistance of the two boys, he was actually employed catching bass and blue gill in the Elsinore territory. Lot of water seeping in from the San Jacinto aqueduct tunnel is pouring water into a natural lake and improving the fishing at the same time. Paul's greatest pleasure from the trip was watching the young sons respond to the "pull" when the fish insisted on getting acquainted.

Cal Flint invests in enough postage to get a card to Les Fountain from Makarska, Yugoslavia, to tell him that he is bicycling two hundred miles from the nearest railroad, where conditions are primitive and different, where native costumes, semi-oriental customs and exotic life greet you in every village. Italy has also proved to be an interesting study for the Santa Ana tourist. When he gets back in September he promises to tell Les a lot of things he couldn't get on the souvenir card.

California Veterans of Foreign Wars going to rally Sept. 18 and 19 at Newport-Balboa, but what are they going to do the next two days?

I haven't any patience with men who are able to work and won't. That kind of indolence throws the burden upon the man who will. Lot of men seem to think they should be petted along, when they should be pushed along. A rocking chair citizen contributes little to the social welfare. If he's physically incapacitated he is to be pitied and helped. But just because the years have piled up a few scores on his head isn't any reason why he should cease to be self-sustaining if employment is available. If that should become a habit the relief load would pile down the governmental structure.

Burglars Get $80 at Brea

Burglars have been busy in Brea this week, as reports to the sheriff's office yesterday show. Two homes were ransacked Tuesday with a total of more than $80 taken.

George Brown, 424 South Madrona, reported that a burglar entered by an unlocked rear door. Brown reported that a total of $80 was missing from dresser drawers in one of the bedrooms.

The burglar entered about the same time that T. P. Wallace, 206 Sievers street, said someone entered his home in broad daylight by a rear screen door. The house was ransacked, he reported, and $175 taken. Deputy Sheriff R. R. Lutes and Officer Hardy of the Brea police investigated both burglaries.

DRIVER JAILED

Drunk driving charges were lodged against William Armstrong, 48, painter, 2012 Cypress street, by Santa Ana police when he was arrested last night and placed in the county jail. Officers Bud Jones and W. E. B. Sherwood placed Armstrong under arrest in the 800 block on Cypress avenue.

Russia's 'Lindbergh' Missing

Segismund Levaneffsky (above), Russia's most famous flyer, who is missing with five companions on a projected flight from Moscow to California. Shown is the proposed route of the flight with the probable area where the huge Russ plane is thought to be grounded shown on the map.

SEEK MISSING RUSSIAN FLIERS

(Continued from Page 1)

top of the world from Moscow to Oakland, Calif.

Pilot S. E. Robbins and Mechanic Clyde Armistead hopped off in a Fairchild pontoon plane to the eastward and Pilot Murray Stuart headed westward, all intending to make a search of the Arctic coast.

MATTER TO LEAVE ON RESCUE FLIGHT

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jimmie Mattern prepared to take off for the North Pole today, anxious to search for the missing Russian aviators and thereby repay his debt.

Segismund Levaneffsky, pilot of the missing Russian plane, and one of his five companions, Navigator Levchenko, rescued Mattern when he crashed in Siberia on a round-the-world flight four years ago.

Soviet officials here asked Mattern if he would direct a search for the aviators and the American flier awaited word from his sponsors. He plans to leave for Alaska in the twin-motored ship he will use on United States-to-Russia flight next year.

The air commerce bureau granted Mattern a permit today to hunt for the Russian aviators.

LOCAL JAIL 'AMONG BEST'

Orange county jail today was classed as "one of the best" jails in California by a report received from the state department of social welfare by Sheriff Logan Jackson.

The investigation of the jail was made by Samuel Williams June 26. In his report sent to Jackson today, Williams had no recommendations to offer.

"This is one of the best regulated jails in California under the efficient management of Sheriff Jackson and Jailer Lacy. All needs of Orange county are being well taken care of," Williams concluded in his report.

Jackson said that it is the policy of the jail to provide solitary and comfortable quarters for inmates.

In the detailed report Williams noted all equipment, condition of cells, laundry, various other facilities were good. He also pointed out that the food served was good as well as the running of the kitchen.

Prisoners are satisfied, Williams reported.

$500 FINE ON FROZEN FRUIT

Frozen oranges from this county again had caused trouble today for packinghouse officials who attempted to ship it in violation of state laws.

A $500 fine was assessed last night in Vernon night court against the Commercial Packing company, which was alleged to have imported frozen oranges from Anaheim and attempted to pack and ship them from Los Angeles.

Harry Hunt, deputy district attorney for Los Angeles county, said state inspectors found fruit being delivered at night to a small plant in the central manufacturing district. Packing operations on the main floor were found to be in order, but on the second floor Hunt charged a complete set of equipment for packing frozen fruit behind a barricade of boxes.

The packing company attempted to recondition the fruit at direction of the inspectors, but was unable to bring it below the state tolerance, and finally consigned it to a by-products plant as was the case in the Western Fruit Growers case last month in this county.

The $500 fine was the maximum sentence under the law. A jail

S. A. MAN SAILS AS MISSIONARY

Philip Martin, local resident and graduate of Santa Ana schools, who was appointed this week as missionary to Taitshar, Manchuria, will sail Sept. 4 from Vancouver, B. C., on the S. S. Empress of Japan for his station.

Martin is a graduate of Santa Ana junior college and later attended Whittier college and Westminster Seminary in Philadelphia. He was ordained during services conducted by the Rev. Samuel Edgar, pastor of the Reformed Presbyterian church here, at the annual convention held at Pacific Palisades last Sunday.

The Rev. J. G. Vov, son of Dr. Gerhardus Vos, 1212 South Syracuse street, is also stationed in Manchuria and will be associated with Martin when he returns after a furlough. Miss Rose Huston, chief of staff, is a sister of Ralph Huston, 1337 Grace street. She was long associated with a station in South China and was transferred to Manchuria when the new station was opened a few years ago.

Welfare Legion Forms New Post

As a direct result of a drive to organize General Welfare Legion posts throughout Orange county and the balance of the 19th congressional district, a new post was formed last night at a meeting in Costa Mesa Community church.

This is the fourth club in Orange county to pull away from the Townsend plan movement and form General Welfare posts. Others are located in Santa Ana, Anaheim and Yorba Linda.

The new post at Costa Mesa will be called General Welfare Legion post No. 14 of the 19th congressional district. About 40 persons attended the meeting last night, when Mrs. Parsons was named temporary president and Mrs. Limbert temporary secretary.

Frank Kendall, vice president of the district organization, presided and addresses were given by H. F. Kenny, Santa Ana, district secretary, and the Rev. S. L. Winger, San Bernardino, district president. Ralph Logsdon, San Bernardino, district treasurer, also was present.

Monday was selected as the regular night of meeting for the new post. The next meeting will be Aug. 23. Several volunteers are circulating the blank for enlistment of members and officers predicted formation of a strong organization in the near future.

Seal Beach Plant Fate Due Monday

Orange county probably will know Monday the fate of $2,000,000 worth of assessed valuation which appears on county and Seal Beach city assessment rolls.

State board of equalization members probably will rule Monday on the protest of the city of Los Angeles, which owns the Seal Beach lighting plant, against assessment of $2,000,000 worth of machinery as improvements. Los Angeles maintains it should be classed as tax-exempt personal property. The county's case was presented to the board last week and the city of Seal Beach is to present its case Monday.

Mexican Held on Attack Charge

Concluding a two-year search for Francisco Becerra, charged with raping an 11-year-old girl, sheriff's officers last night arrested the suspect on a warrant issued by the justice court here.

He was booked at the county jail after being arraigned in justice court before Judge Chris P.

term could not be imposed against the corporation, and charges against individual officials had been dismissed when the company entered a plea of guilty.

CHINESE KILL BROTHER OF S. A. WOMAN and twisted, some containing unrecognizable, contorted bodies.

(Continued from Page 1)

SMOKING SIGHT

"Huge blotches of blood and fragments of human flesh lay on the pavement. The smell was sickening."

"Dominating this corner is the 'great world' amusement center, in normal times the resort of thousands of Chinese each night but recently used as living quarters for Chinese refugees pouring in from Chapei, Yangtzepoo and Hongkew (areas embraced in the war zone)."

"This building was badly damaged, throwing the refugees into shrieking terror. Windows in buildings for blocks around were shattered."

"Foreign and Chinese police and foreign firemen appeared quickly, lifting the bodies onto trucks. Many of the bodies looked mummified and inhuman. In spite of reports that only Chinese were involved, I saw several blond heads among the truckloads of bodies."

37 YEARS IN CHINA

Dr. Rawlinson had devoted 37 years of his life to missionary work in China. He was a missionary of the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions and editor of the Denominational Chinese recorder, published in Shanghai. He was appointed a missionary by the American board after he had already served 19 years in China under the Southern Baptist board.

HERE AT THANKSGIVING

With his daughter, Ruth, he had visited in Orange county last Thanksgiving time. He spent the day with his sister, Mrs. Hunt. At that time he was on his way back to China after spending his furlough here. He spent much of his time while in Southern California in Alhambra, where the father, the Rev. D. J. Rawlinson, was pastor of the Brethren church for many years.

He was born in England in 1871, and the greater part of his life was spent in missionary work. After the death of his first wife, Carrie May Dietz, of Baltimore, he married Florence Lang at Toledo, Ohio, in 1917. Nine children were born to the first union, of whom five are living. These are Gilbert Rawlinson, 36, and Frank Rawlinson, 33, both of Webster Groves, Mo.; Marjorie McKnight, 34, of Florence, S. C.; Alfred Rawlinson, 29, Atlanta, Ga.; and George Rawlinson, 33, of Los Angeles.

By the second union three children were born. Ruth Rawlinson, now a student at Oberlin college, Ohio, was here in Santa Ana with Dr. Rawlinson on his last visit. John Rawlinson, 16, and Jean Rawlinson, 15, were with him in China when he was killed.

Besides his sister here, he has three brothers and another sister. H. J. Rawlinson, Anderson, Ind.; F. H. Rawlinson, Baltimore, Md.; H. E. Rawlinson, president of the Los Angeles Conservatory of Music, and Mrs. Caspar Henckel, Pasadena.

Dr. Rawlinson has five nephews and nieces living in Orange county, five of the 12 children of Mr. and Mrs. Hunt of Santa Ana. They are Richard, Fairfax and Helen, of the home; Barnes and Henry Rawlinson of Santa Ana.

Mrs. Rawlinson told The Journal today that when her famous brother was here he was considering retiring this year, but later changed his mind and decided to continue his service in the Chinese missionary field until 1940.

MWD BOOSTS CITY TAXES

(Continued from Page 1)

the MWD board of directors yesterday afternoon.

The figures above are based on the 40 cent tax rate as it applies to the new assessed valuations of the three Orange county cities.

An announcement today from the MWD board following the meeting yesterday afternoon, said that from a previously estimated tax rate of 45 cents, the board pared down the levy for the next fiscal year to 40 cents.

The district tax rate for 1936-37 was 37 cents. The 3-cent increase over the current tax rate was made necessary to cover interest charges on the additional amounts being invested in construction work, it was pointed out. The district's tax levy is distributed among its 13 member cities, and each city's share of the levy is in proportion to its assessed valuation.

So far the city of Santa Ana has paid out $27,125,500 in MWD taxes. The rate the first year, in 1931-32, was 3 cents, mounting to 4 cents in 1932-33, the same amount the next year, 10 cents in 1934-35, 20 cents in 1935-36, 37 cents last year and now 40 cents.

Pann. Preliminary examination was set for Aug. 18. Bail was set at $3000.

Becerra has been sought by local officers as the result of an asserted attack on his 11-year-old cousin, A. Mrs. Becerra, mother of the girl, is the complaining witness. He had been in Mexico during a great deal of this time, according to Merle Dean, chief criminal deputy. Deputy Sheriffs James Workman and James Muegel arrested Becerra in Los Angeles.

"The Supreme Offering"
MORNING WORSHIP 10:45 BROADWAY THEATER
Mr. McFarland preaches.
Union Evening Service, 7:30, First Baptist Church
FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
O. SCOTT McFARLAND, Minister
WHITFORD L. HALL, Minister of Music

SEEK TO KEEP FLOOD WORK IN COUNTY

Contractors of Orange county acted today to form a powerful combine to enable them to bid successfully on construction work for Orange county's big $15,248,000 flood control and water conservation project.

The movement was led by Earl S. Casey, Tustin construction engineer, who said the purpose of the proposal is to organize efficiently under one head in order to submit bids on the construction of the various dams and attendant works as proposed.

Another major objective of the movement is to bring about adequate distribution to the various contractors, dealers and trades of Orange county their just proportion of the labor and material to be employed on the big job.

To accomplish these objectives, it is proposed that individual contractors, dealers and labor organizations assemble their full membership at the earliest possible date for a general discussion of the proposal, and to appoint a delegate to represent their respective organizations at a meeting to be held in the near future.

The army engineers will spend $12,478,000 on construction of eight dams for Orange county. They will let the work out on contract provided bids are satisfactory. If they are not they will do the work by force account. Orange county voters assured construction of the dams by passing the $2,500,000 water bond issue by an overwhelming majority on July 27.

BOMBS KILL 3 AMERICANS

(Continued from Page 1)

river or Japanese land concentrations.

But the victims of the resulting holocausts were mostly innocent Chinese civilians. Many other foreigners, besides the Americans, were killed or wounded.

BUILDINGS SHATTERED

Great buildings, including two famous hotels, were shattered. Mounds of dead littered the pavements.

The American dead were: Dr. Frank P. Rawlinson, 35 years a missionary leader in China; H. S. Honigsberg, wealthy motor car dealer who had made Shanghai his home for more than 20 years; Dr. Robert K. Reischauer, member of the Princeton University faculty, in Shanghai on a study tour.

The war in the air was only one phase, but a deadly phase, of the battle of Shanghai between China and Japan. The conflict, in the second day of actual bloodshed, was fought from the air, on water and on land along a front from Shanghai to the mighty Yangtze river, 100 miles north.

WAR RAGES ON RIVER

Mostly it waged along the Wungpoo river, Shanghai's harbor and winding highway to the sea, crowded with the shipping of many nations and the 21 naval vessels that Japan is known to have concentrated here.

Far to the north the five weeks old undeclared war in Hopeh province continued bitterly, involving ever increasing forces and a steadily widening area.

Warplanes of both China and Japan were over Shanghai most of the day in spite of heavy, low-hanging clouds and frequent rain. What tolls of death and destruction they claimed in distant Japanese and Chinese parts could not even be estimated today.

BOMBS KILL 450

In the international area the two fatal bombs fell late on Saturday afternoon when Shanghai streets are always teeming.

Two plunged together into the intersection of Avenue Edward VII and Thibet road, in the French concession, and the police there declared they killed 450 and wounded 750 all Chinese. It was here that Rawlinson and Honigsberg met death.

The other tore a great hole in Nanking road, just between two of the city's leading hotels, the Calhoun and the Palace, both packed with guests and refugees. This is in the international settlement. Here 130 were killed and 70 wounded, according to police estimates.

BOMB TEARS OFF LEG

Reischauer was in the lobby of the Palace hotel when a bomb fragment tore off his leg. He died later in a hospital.

The known American injured were R. R. Rouse of Saco, Mont., and J. M. Kerby, employee of a firm of accountants. Both were expected to recover.

Rouse, a former marine now employed in Shanghai, was hit in the left knee and shoulder. He was caught in a cross fire with machine guns. His wife and child, with him at the time, were unhurt.

At least 16 Chinese planes ranged over Shanghai and the Whangpoo river, striking at Japanese warships and land concentrations, but apparently doing their greatest destruction in the foreign-controlled sections.

Japanese aircraft went up to fight them, but with little effect.

There were reports to indicate the Chinese airmen had bombed Japanese centers and vessels with machine gun effect. Japanese indicated they would take swift and terrible revenge, possibly bombing Nanking, China's capital.

Rush Plans For Russ Rescue

Pilot Jimmie Mattern (left) and his navigator, H. S. Jones, inspect instruments for their polar flight plane in preparation for a takeoff to hunt six Russian flyers reported missing somewhere in the vicinity of the North Pole on a flight from Moscow to Oakland.

Theater Suit Hearing Oct. 13

Suit for $1800 damages against Victor Walker, Charles Walker, and the Walker's theater has been set for Wednesday, Oct. 13 in justice court. It was announced today. The suit involves the allegation that the defendants showed discrimination against Ramon and Christina Lucio, Santa Ana Mexicans, when they assertedly bought tickets to Walker's theater and

Mrs. Van Antwerp Petitions Writ

Mrs. Daisy Dean Van Antwerp today had petitioned superior court to terminate the joint tenancy of the late Claude H. Van Antwerp in notes and investment certificates with a face value of $91,375.

Mr. Van Antwerp, Santa Ana capitalist, died last July 18.

He was denied admission.

W. Maxwell Burke filed suit on behalf of the Lucios.

CAPONE LOSES BATTLE FOR FREEDOM

CHICAGO. (AP)—Al Capone was a loser today in his court fight to have one year and $20,000 in fines sliced off his sentence of 11 years in prison and $50,000 in fines for violating the federal income tax laws.

Capone's petition for a commutation in sentence and reduction in fines was denied by Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson.

The former gang chief was sentenced on Oct. 23, 1931, to serve 10 years in the penitentiary and pay $50,000 fines for conviction on three felony counts and to serve one year in jail and pay $20,000 fines on misdemeanor counts in the indictment.

Capone's attorneys charged the jail term and fines for the misdemeanors constituted double jeopardy and inconsistency. He is serving the penitentiary term at Alcatraz prison in San Francisco Bay.

Janitor Suicide As School Burns

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Sheriff Carroll Cate said Charles Lett, 48, sought by a posse for two days for questioning about the burning of Gibbs High school, shot himself to death today when surrounded near here.

The sheriff said his men located Lett near an old sawmill. As they closed in, they heard a gunshot and found Lett dead from a wound near the heart.

Sheriff Cate said Lett was discharged as janitor of the school about a year ago.

How to Win a Husband's Praise and Influence His Generosity:

READ THE ADS IN THE JOURNAL Regularly...

The most popular "book of the month" with readers of The Journal is the budget book. Women who shop in The Journal before shopping in Santa Ana, know how to stay within their budget allowance... how to win a husband's praise for their thrift... and how to influence his generosity by getting the most for their money always!

Now, at a time when you're thinking of your fall needs, it is more important than ever to read Journal ads regularly. Merchants are offering special values in order to clear their stocks. Take advantage of that by buying for fall and even for next summer!

Have The Journal Delivered to Your Home Every Day
Simply Call 3600 and Ask for Circulation Department

Santa Ana Journal
PHONE 3600

Townsend News, Views

By
WALTER R. ROBB

This column will soon have a birthday. On Aug. 31 it will be one year old. It wonders how many readers are going to wish it many more happy birthdays? Wouldn't a postal card shower to the writer from every one of its readers be appreciated? I'll say it would.

How many of you will send a message to Walter R. Robb, lock box 441, Santa Ana, between now and August 31? It would be appreciated. Make your message long or short just as you wish but above all be a sport and send a cent for a postcard, signing your name and address to your birthday wish. Do it now before you forget.

Mrs. Mary E. Ashenfelter, 215 N. Claudine street, Anaheim, has become a reader of this column beginning Thursday this week. She ordered The Journal left at her home so she could keep in touch with Townsend happenings in Orange county and elsewhere so she said. Mrs. Ashenfelter is secretary of the Anaheim club No. 1.

On August 9th, the 19th district Townsend board met in Riverside and went on record as approving the return to the 25 cent national membership fee for Townsend club members as recently advocated by Dr. Francis E. Townsend. The board also adopted the plan of 10 cents per month dues or quota payments from each club member to the clubs, and urged the clubs over the 19th district to follow this ruling. The writer thinks this is getting back to a sensible and practical method of financing the local and national Townsend movement and will result in general approval by the Townsdenites all over the district. Another forward step taken by the board was the determination to send a 19th district bulletin to all Townsend clubs every two weeks.

Orange club No. 1 is meeting at 7:30 Monday evening in the Townsend club building at 149 South Glassell street with J. A. Green, president, in charge. The speaker will be L. C. Carlisle of Santa Ana.

Santa Ana club No. 2 will meet Monday evening in Townsend club building at 509 West Fourth street at 7:30 o'clock. Pope R. Long will preside over the meeting.

La Habra club No. 1 will meet Monday in the Masonic hall with President E. E. Proud as the presiding officer. Last Monday evening this club had Rev. C. W. Philo of a Los Angeles as its speaker who delivered an inspiring message it is reported. Talk about loyalty to Dr. Townsend, this club surely has it.

Fullerton club No. 1 under the direction of Ota A. Everett, president, will meet next Monday evening in Amegre Park on West Commonwealth. The club will continue to meet in the park until September 14 unless the weather gets too cool, was a recent decision in the club's advisory board business session.

Mrs. A. F. Hibbet, corresponding secretary of the Fullerton club, writes that Monday evening, Aug. 16 at 7:30 the club will meet in the social hall of the Presbyterian church with A. E. Thomas, president, in the chair.

Frank G. Dickinson, assistant professor of economics, University of Illinois, has this to say in the Saturday Evening Post of Aug. 7 in his article "New Class War."

"Dr. Frances E. Townsend started an exceedingly interesting political movement in the city of Los Angeles a few years ago. This movement has been construed as a depression phenomenon by those unfamiliar with these changing age groupings of our population. Although it is natural to expect a great movement for pensions to be initiated in a period of depression, we should be very foolish to assume that the movement will end with the return of prosperity. Townsendism will grow and expand as the percentage of retired citizens in the total population increases. Those with political ambitions should remember that point."

The day is not far distant when other newspapers like The Journal will recognize the value to its makeup of a Townsend News Views column. The writings quoted from the above professor of economics is indicative of the trend of thought which is rapidly crystallizing in favor of the Townsend plan.

3-YEAR-OLD FOUND
Three-year-old Ronald Richards, 514 Cypress street, was lost last night. But not for long. Mrs. N. G. Allen, Fourth and Spurgeon, reported the lost boy to police. In the meantime, however, Charles Henry returned him to his parents.

Santa Ana Neon Co. Adv
Desirable crypts as low as $135
This beautiful memorial edifice provides the most modern and permanent method of interment. Investigation at time of need implies no obligation. Terms are liberal. Phone Orange 131 for information.
Melrose Abbey Mausoleum

TAX STRIKE THREAT MADE TO BOARD

L.A. May Secede From County, Group Claims

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—The county supervisors are pondering deeply on just where and how hard to drop the axe on the preliminary 1937-38 county budget.

Because, says W. A. Pixley, there may be a tax strike and the City of Los Angeles may even decide to secede from the county, if the county tax rate is raised.

When Pixley told the supervisors this at a public hearing on the budget, a crowd of taxpayers cheered. He is spokesman for the Property Owners' Association of California.

Pixley and other speakers earnestly assailed the tentative budget of more than $65,910,000, which, if retained, would boost the tax rate of $1.60 on each $100 of assessed valuation.

If the constantly increasing tax rate is upheld further, "incensed taxpayers" probably cannot be headed off from a tax strike much longer, Pixley told the supervisors.

"If you accede," he said, "to the demands of the various county departments in such a spending orgy as is contemplated in this budget, taxpayers of the City of Los Angeles may feel there is but one thing for them to do—and that is to secede from the county government."

Members of the supervisors' board assured the speakers they were anxious as anyone to trim the budget and pointed out that many of the items were mandatory.

13th Lucky for Farmer; Finds Cows and Gets Son
SILVER CREEK, N. Y. (AP)—Fortune smiled on Erwin Chapin on Friday the 13th.

Searching for nine cows he thought he had lost in a flood yesterday, he found the cows, huddled safely together in a valley.

Returning home to tell the good news to his wife, he found she had just presented him with a son.

Vital Records
Birth Notices
READ—To Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Read, 1504 Johnson drive, Fullerton, Sept. 13, a son, 8 lbs., 10 oz.

ULRICH—To Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ulrich, 1110 South Garnsey street, Santa Ana, Santa Ana Valley hospital, Aug. 14, a girl.

Intentions to Wed
Edward Eastham, 20; Bernice Brennaman Martin, 17, Santa Ana; Harold Greer Ellenberger, 25; Lillie Maxine Laing, 22, Brea; Frank Gonzales, 19, Huntington Beach; Sadie Bracamontes, 19, Santa Ana; Richard G. Kennedy, 22; Edith Elaine Johnston, 19, Long Beach.

Willie Elisha Love, 31; Loma Doris Mitchell, 30, Los Angeles; Le Roy C. Montgomery, 22; Lucille Veronica Large, 21, Los Angeles.

Henry Groom Parman, 65; Effie Mae Atton, 63, Los Angeles; Joe Valensuela Ramirez, 19; Carmen Corrales, 20, Buena Park; Lawrence Henry Schwack, Valley, Neb.; Helen Margaret Beckmeyer, 32, Fremont, Neb.

Carl F. Schlicker, 46, Los Angeles; Marie Louise Carter, 20, Venice; Ellwood Howard Steen, 33, San Pedro; Helen Ruth Herman, 24, Los Angeles.

Marriage Licenses
Paul Huron Spennetta, 22, Box 429; Helen Margaret Volberding, 21, R. 1, Box 67, Orange.

John M. Murello, jr., 35, 937 West Second street, San Pedro; Celia Jaene, 36, 1212 West Cubbon street, Santa Ana.

Francisco Flores, 29, Atwood; Eleanor Perez, 20, Vista street, Anaheim.

Thomas Fisher McCullough, 22, 2223 A Ocean avenue, Santa Monica; Edith Martha Carter, 20, 1415 West Fourth street, Santa Ana.

Abel C. Castillo, 36, 215 East La Palma street; Deffina L. Perez, 25, R. 3, Box 372-A, Anaheim.

Divorces Granted
Helen May Yates from Charles Lester Yates.

Mildred Irene Allan from Thomas Allan, jr., annulment.

Marguerite Phyllis Linam from Harlin Linam.

Deaths
WILSON—Mrs. Gertrude Adella Wilson, 49, of Panorama Heights, died Aug. 14. She is survived by her husband, Fred L. Wilson; two sons, James Padker Wilson and Stanley Frederick Wilson; and one sister, Mrs. Herbert Soest of Los Angeles. Funeral services will be held Monday at 3:30 p. m. from the Smith and Tutthill chapel with the Rev. O. Scott McFarland officiating. Interment in Fairhaven cemetery.

KIHN—William H. Kihn, 82, died in Santa Ana Aug. 13. He is survived by one son, William C. Kihn, Chicago, and one daughter, Mrs. George McDonough, Santa Ana. Grave side services will be held Monday at 3 p. m. at the Roosevelt Memorial park cemetery, Gardena, Calif., with the Rev. Perry F. Schrock, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating. Winblier mortuary in charge.

Roosevelt Wants Local Poem By Beulah May in Anthology

Additional honor was accorded Miss Beulah May, prominent Santa Ana poetess, today when a request was received from Theodore Roosevelt for permission to reprint Miss May's poem "Prayer for Little Beasts" in a new anthology just being printed.

With his sister, Mrs. Alice Longworth, Roosevelt is compiling a book of poems for the American people which will contain verse of which the average American is fond. It will be called "Desk Drawer Anthology" and only poems sent in from all parts of the United States by interested readers will be included.

Permission has been requested to print the poem in both American and foreign editions. The verse, "A Prayer for Little Beasts" was printed in a collection of Miss May's poetry, "Bucaneer's Gold," which was published by the Santa Ana Fine Arts press in 1935 under the direction of Thomas E. Williams.

The poem follows:
"Oh guard, dear Pan, so great and wise,
All little beasts with frightened eyes,
That sniff and scabble in the night,
Then scurry off alive with fright,
Hide them in burrow, nest or den,
Far from the guns and traps of men.
They ask so little, only these:
Grain from the farmer, mouldy cheese,
A wormy apple in the grass
And nuts for winter store. Alas,
How they are hunted out of hand
All up and down their noisy land.
Oh guard, dear Pan, so great and wise,
All little beasts with frightened eyes."

'ALIEN PURGE' CONTINUES
The "alien purge" from the Works Progress administration has resulted in dismissal of several persons from work relief rolls, it was learned today.

Chief Franklin Davis of the United States border patrol and immigration service here said that 20 WPA workers have been certified to him for investigation as to their citizenship claims, and that several of these were found to have been aliens in that their citizenship papers had not been applied for.

Under WPA rules, these persons were dropped from work relief projects. They are, however, eligible to county welfare aid and help from the State Relief administration if they do not have private employment. The "purge" of the WPA ranks of aliens started some weeks ago under orders from Washington, and will continue until all "doubtful" cases are investigated, Chief Davis declared.

Thieves Steal Spare Tires
Some Anaheim thief has two tires that don't belong to him, and two Anaheim men are convinced that Friday the Thirteenth really is a jinx day.

Louis Ford, 226 S. Los Angeles street, reported theft of a tire from his machine while he was watching a baseball game at the City park, and S. Lund of 1121 W. Center street lost his spare wheel and tire when his car was parked in front of a downtown cafe.

Weather
TEMPERATURES
(Courtesy of Knox and Stout)
Today
High, 76 degrees at 11 a. m.; low, 68 degrees, at 7:30 a. m.

WEATHER DATA
(Courtesy of Junior College)
Tom Hudsphert, Observer
Barometer: 29.71 inches, no change.
Relative humidity: 82 per cent.
Dewpoint: 65 F.
Wind: Velocity, 7 m.p.h.; direction, southwest; prevailing direction last 24 hours, southwest.

TIDE TABLE
A.M. A.M. P.M. P.M.
Aug. 14 3:11 11:23
Dewpoint: 65 F.
Aug. 15 3:11 11:23
A.M. A.M. P.M. P.M.
Aug. 15 6:29 9:56 4:24
3.2 3.1 4.8

SUN AND MOON
(Courtesy Coast and Geodetic Survey)
Sun rises 5:12 a.m.; sets 6:40 p.m.
Moon rises 1:13 p.m.; sets 11:29 p.m.

Aug. 15
Sun rises 5:13 a.m.; sets 6:39 p.m.
Moon rises 2:06 p.m.; sets—
Aug. 16
Sun rises 5:13 a.m.; sets 6:38 p.m.
Moon rises 2:55 p.m.; sets 0:15 a.m.

WEATHER ELSEWHERE
SAN FRANCISCO BAY REGION: Fair and mild tonight and Sunday, with fog night and morning; moderate west wind.

NORTH RIVER CALIFORNIA: Fair tonight and Sunday, but fog on coast night and morning; little change in temperature; moderate northwest wind off coast.

SACRAMENTO, SANTA CLARA AND SAN JOAQUIN VALLEYS: Fair tonight and Sunday; little change in temperature; changeable wind.

TEMPERATURES ELSEWHERE
LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Temperatures taken at 4:30 a. m. Pacific time today and past 24 hours high and low were given out by the U. S. weather bureau as follows:
4:30 High Low
Boston 66 86
Chicago 68 82
Cleveland 70 78
Denver 68 94
Des Moines 66 90
Detroit 62 82
El Paso 74 96
Helena 58 90
Kansas City 64 84
Los Angeles 64 77
Memphis 72 88
Minneapolis 74 88
New Orleans 70 90
New York 68 82
Omaha 68 92
Phoenix 82 106
Pittsburgh 64 80
Salt Lake City 68 102
San Francisco 54 64
Seattle 58 70
St. Louis 72 88
Tampa 78 92

Bring Maynard Here for Trial
Brought back here from Fresno yesterday by Assistant Police Chief Harry Fink and Officer W. H. "Bud" Heard, Louis Maynard, 25, was held today for preliminary hearing Aug. 19 at 9 a. m. on three counts of passing fictitious checks.

The man joined his wife, Mildred, 23, in Orange county jail last night after Justice of the Peace Chris P. Pann presided at his arraignment. Mrs. Maynard had pleaded guilty to complicity in the crime career and will be taken before superior court next Friday for a probation plea.

Maynard and his wife assertedly floated fraudulent checks to local grocers last December. Maynard completed a term in Fresno jail yesterday. They also are wanted by police of other Southern cities, local officers said.

Journal's Financial, Citrus, Produce

Grain Market

By Wm. Cavalier & Co.
Members New York Stock Exchange
516 North Main, Santa Ana—Phone 600
CHICAGO GRAIN

WHEAT—	High	Low	Close
September	112 1/2	111 1/2	111 3/4
December	113 1/2	112 1/2	112 3/4
May	115 1/2	114 1/2	114 3/4

CORN—	High	Low	Close
September	99 1/2	97 1/2	98 1/4
December	67 1/2	66 1/2	66 3/4
May	68 1/2	67 1/2	67 3/4

OATS—	High	Low	Close
September	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
December	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
May	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2

RYE—	High	Low	Close
September	84	82 1/2	83 1/2
December	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 3/4
May	81	80 1/2	80 3/4

WINNIPEG GRAIN	High	Low	Close
WHEAT—	130 1/2	128 1/2	129 1/2
October	127 1/2	125 1/2	125 3/4
December	128 1/2	126 1/2	127 1/2

OATS—	High	Low	Close
October	49 1/2	48 1/2	49 1/4
December	46 1/2	45 1/2	45 3/4
May	46 1/2	45 1/2	45 3/4

October	High	Low	Close
September	91 1/2	90 1/2	90 3/4
December	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 3/4
May	89 1/2	88 1/2	88 3/4

WHEAT—	High	Low	Close
September	99 1/2	97 1/2	98 1/4
December	67 1/2	66 1/2	66 3/4
May	68 1/2	67 1/2	67 3/4

CORN—	High	Low	Close
September	99 1/2	97 1/2	98 1/4
December	67 1/2	66 1/2	66 3/4
May	68 1/2	67 1/2	67 3/4

OATS—	High	Low	Close
September	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
December	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
May	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2

RYE—	High	Low	Close
September	84	82 1/2	83 1/2
December	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 3/4
May	81	80 1/2	80 3/4

WINNIPEG GRAIN	High	Low	Close
WHEAT—	130 1/2	128 1/2	129 1/2
October	127 1/2	125 1/2	125 3/4
December	128 1/2	126 1/2	127 1/2

OATS—	High	Low	Close
October	49 1/2	48 1/2	49 1/4
December	46 1/2	45 1/2	45 3/4
May	46 1/2	45 1/2	45 3/4

October	High	Low	Close
September	91 1/2	90 1/2	90 3/4
December	80 1/2	79 1/2	79 3/4
May	89 1/2	88 1/2	88 3/4

WHEAT—	High	Low	Close
September	99 1/2	97 1/2	98 1/4
December	67 1/2	66 1/2	66 3/4
May	68 1/2	67 1/2	67 3/4

CORN—	High	Low	Close
September	99 1/2	97 1/2	98 1/4
December	67 1/2	66 1/2	66 3/4
May	68 1/2	67 1/2	67 3/4

OATS—	High	Low	Close
September	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
December	29 1/2	29 1/2	29 1/2
May	31 1/2	31 1/2	31 1/2

Week's Citrus Review

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—California oranges were weaker and lemons stronger during the past week in eastern and middle western auction centers.

Volume of sales was almost unchanged with the volume of oranges increasing eight cars to a total of 487 and the lemons increasing 15 cars to a total of 229.

California valencias were 13 cents per box lower to an auction average for the week of $5.18 while lemons strengthened 28 cents a box to an average of $5.39.

W. C. Frackelton, general manager for the California - Arizona orange and grapefruit agency, announced next week's voluntary prorate at 750 cars of valencias in interstate commerce and 75 cars of valencias intrastate commerce, unchanged from a week ago.

Pacific coast citrus markets were about steady on oranges and slightly weaker on lemons, reflecting the trend set by the entire country, the federal-state market news service reported today.

Arrivals were slightly less in San Francisco, Seattle, Portland and Los Angeles.

The California Fruit Growers exchange reported on the market as a whole as follows:
"The valencia market was off from 10 cents to 15 cents per box during the week compared with the previous week with most of the decline occurring in the larger sizes. Sales were slightly less.

"Competitive fruits continue in heavy supply and many of them are selling at very low prices compared to oranges.
"Demand and price on grapefruit are unchanged.

"The lemon market improved somewhat in both price and volume of sales during the week. Orange averages per box for the week, with comparative figures for last week and the corresponding weeks of 1936 and 1935 follow:

This Last 1936 1935	Week Week Week	Week Week Week
New York	$5.39 $5.47 $4.17	$5.40 $5.20 $5.35
Boston	5.20 5.35 4.11	5.36 5.23 5.38
Chicago	5.23 5.18 3.98	5.21 5.15 3.92
Philadelphia	4.85 5.17 3.80	5.15 4.85 3.75
Pittsburgh	5.17 5.01 3.70	5.06 4.85 3.70
Cleveland	4.85 5.12 3.73	5.06 4.85 3.70
St. Louis	5.06 5.31 3.78	5.24 5.06 3.73
Baltimore	4.82 4.98 3.72	5.09 4.82 3.73
Cincinnati	4.86 5.06 3.70	5.13 4.86 3.73
Detroit	5.37 5.31 4.07	5.24 5.06 3.73
Averages	5.18 5.31 4.00	5.27 5.06 3.73
Lemon Avgs.	5.39 5.11 5.60	5.27 5.06 3.73

L. A. Livestock
LOS ANGELES. (AP)—(U. S. Dept. Agr.)—Hogs, receipts for week, 1650; 35c to 75c lower; closing top, $13.65; late bulk, $13.00. 50-lb. hedges, $10.25-12.50; sows, $8.50-9.50; few $9.75.

Cattle for week, 7350; mostly steady; few common to medium steers, 15c to 25c lower; few choice fed steers bought to arrive at $11.50; medium to good fed steers, $9.85-10.50; bulk medium steers, $8.00-9.50; Mexicans, $7.75-8.85; fed heifers, $8.25-9.00; grassy heifers, $6.50-8.00; cows, $5.50-7.00; young cows to $7.25; cutter grades, $3.50-5.25; bulls, $5.75-6.75; few to $7.15.

Calves for week, 1600; steady to 75c lower; vealers, $7.50-10.00; practical top, $10.50; range calves, $7.00-8.50.

Sheep for week, 1250; lambs steady to 25c higher; ewes steady; medium to good shorn lambs, 6.00-15; woolled lambs quoted $9.50-10.25; shorn ewes, $2.00-3.50; good quoted to $4.50.

Butter and Eggs
LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Produce exchange receipts: Butter, 223,200 lbs.; cheese 40,300 lbs.; eggs 600 cases.
Butter in bulk .34.
Candled large eggs .30; do medium .27; do smalls .17.

WOUND FATAL TO MRS. WILSON
Death came to Mrs. Gertrude Adella Wilson, Panorama Heights, early this morning as a result of gun wounds in her head. She died at St. Joseph's hospital where she was taken after a critical condition yesterday morning.

Mrs. Wilson was a resident of Orange county all her life. She was born in Orange, Aug. 17, 1878. She is survived by her

GRANGE WINS TROPHY AT S. D. FAIR

Local Entry Judged Best in Division

TALBERT. — Orange county's Pomona Grange came out of the San Diego fair at Del Mar with top honors in exhibit by Granges, Master Robert Wardlow announced today.

In competition with other granges, the local exhibit was judged the finest entry, Wardlow said, and will be entered in the Los Angeles county fair at Pomona beginning Sept. 15.

The exhibit featured a huge background of oranges and included 128 plates showing agricultural products of the county.

Aiding in preparing the exhibit and in acting as hosts at the fair were Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson, Wintersburg; Mrs. Ralph Allen, Tustin; Mr. Eades, Garden Grove; Harold Heil, Anaheim; Mr. Gallo-way, Costa Mesa and Mr. and Mrs. Wardlow.

Wreck Victim to Return to Orange

ORANGE.—Mrs. Bob Schwarz was scheduled to arrive at her home today by train from Merced, where she was injured in an automobile accident Tuesday. It was reported that she had suffered three broken ribs and a fractured vertebrae. The injured woman was traveling with Ethel Brennan, Santa Ana, on a vacation trip when the accident occurred. Mrs. Brennan, driver of the car, was uninjured.

Mrs. Schwarz's husband, who left for Merced as soon as word was received of the accident, will return with her.

Lola Larkin, English star in a Broadway revue, is urged by Winfield Balcom to marry him. Winfield's father, Senator Balcom, retains Martha Carter, clever woman lawyer, to prevent this seeming mesalliance. Norman Standish, Englishman, arrives in New York with his bride, Cora, and meets Lola in secret. His bride learns of this and rushes to her best friend, Martha Carter, with her troubles. She wants Martha to bribe Lola to keep away from her husband. It happens that Lola is also a client of Martha's. Cora Standish sees Lola dining with Victor Mansfield, her young sister's husband, and her own growling orders to spare no expense to dig up Lola's past.

CHAPTER XVIII

"That can be done, senator," Martha agreed, "but, after all, Miss Larkin has been over here little more than three years. She is an English girl. She came over with an English company."

Senator Balcom frowned. "Cable a good detective agency in London, order them to rush a report at once and, meanwhile, find out the sort of a life she has led since she came here."

He produced a more than ample check. Martha promised and telephoned to the head of a detective agency to come right over. Johnson, head of the agency, took in all the details and made notes. He had a New York to London telephone that with a head of a London detective agency and assured Martha that reports would come in promptly.

Martha was disappointed over her inability to have a private talk with Lola. She was afraid Cora might think she wasn't trying hard enough. She decided to make it a long day. At her home she changed from her mannish office clothes to an attractive feminine costume. She wanted very much to see this supposedly handsome, distinguished and yet gallivanting husband of Cora's, but to see him under such conditions as would not reveal her identity.

HER plans included a visit back stage at the Planet theater, not in Cora's snaking way, but far more openly. If she found Norman Standish there, she would promptly disappear, after getting a good look at him. If he wasn't there, she might have a word with Lola about the contract and lead up to the all-important subject of getting her to leave Norman Standish strictly to his lawful and loving wife. Meanwhile, she decided to drop in at the Big Venice, an Italian restaurant in the West Forties.

When she entered the Big Venice she found the proprietor, fat and smiling, Pietro Bianco, in his little office. As she sat there chatting with him about a lease, she was startled to see Lola Larkin enter the place. A second glance, and there was the beaming Winfield Balcom trailing her.

Pietro looked out through the artificial grape vines and shook his head. "Do you know that young man, Mr. Bianco?" Martha asked.

"I see him lotsa time—but then, the nice Mees Larkin have many gentlemen to bring her here. She sees fine customer. She like my place much," he explained.

"His father is Senator Balcom," Martha explained.

"You say so?" Mr. Bianco's thick black eyebrows arched in surprise.

Striker Beaten In Riot

A member of the strike committee in Petersboro, Ont., was bludgeoned when 17 police and 150 girl strikers clashed at the Dominion Woollens and Textiles, Ltd., as the company started a back-to-work movement. Several persons were hurt.

Newsman Invited to Compete In Harbor Shoe Tournery

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Insisting that there be no hitting in the clinches, members of the horseshoe committee of the Newport Harbor Chamber of Commerce and a press committee have decided upon a tentative date and made drawings for what has been politely termed a newspaper horse-shoe pitching tournament here.

First bloodshed is expected on the afternoon of Saturday, Aug. 28, when representatives of all weekly and daily newspapers in the county have been asked to send representatives. Two "brigades" have been named in initial drawings for positions, with each daily paper to have three representatives and each weekly one.

In the first round, a representative of the Orange Daily News will meet one from the Anaheim Gazette; Brea Progress vs. Fullerton News-Tribune; Anaheim Bulletin vs. Buena Park News; Placentia Courier vs. Santa Ana Register; Orange News vs. Huntington Beach News; Yorba Linda Star vs. Garden Grove News; Fullerton News-Tribune vs. Anaheim Bulletin and La Habra Star vs. Santa Ana Journal.

The second round of competition lists Santa Ana Register vs. Seal Beach Post; Coastline Dispatch, Capistrano vs. Tustin News; Orange News vs. South Coast News; Laguna; Anaheim Bulletin vs. Santa Ana Register; Newport News vs. Santa Ana Journal; Westminster Gazette vs. Long Beach Press-Telegram; Fullerton News-Tribune vs. Costa Mesa Globe-Herald; and San Clemente Sun vs. Santa Ana Journal.

In charge of arrangements are Paul Wilson, Westminster; Frank Rosapaw, Placentia and Sam Meyer, Newport Beach.

FREE FISHING DAY SLATED

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—"Free fishing for females" has been adopted as the slogan here for next Tuesday, when the first annual Ladies' Day will be instituted on the California fishing barge, members of the fishing committee of the chamber of commerce have decided.

The committee, headed by Heinz Kaiser, has decided to hold a number of like events during the summer, and plans now are being completed to institute a similar "bargain day" on live bait boats, where women will be admitted free with one paid admission.

For Tuesday's event, medals will be awarded for largest fish caught, for the oldest fisherman and for the most fish caught.

Lawrence Chaffee Has Birthday

GARDEN GROVE.—A dinner party honoring Lawrence Chaffee on his birthday anniversary Thursday was given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Chaffee, who invited as guests Miss Betty Howell of Santa Ana, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hunter of Norwalk and Miss Ethel Chaffee.

Fullerton Budget Hearing Slated

FULLERTON.—A hearing for the proposed budget for the Fullerton Union High school and District Junior college will be held in the superintendent's office Aug. 24 at 7:30 p. m., according to announcement today by Louis E. Plummer, superintendent.

County Legion Groups to Meet

LAGUNA BEACH.—The Orange county council of American Legion auxiliaries will be guests of the local auxiliary at a noon luncheon Tuesday at Legion hall. Officers of all county auxiliaries are expected to attend. Following the business meeting, sewing projects will be furthered.

Driver Hurt in Orange Crash

ORANGE.—Mrs. David Phillips, Riverside, suffered a broken kneecap, when the car she was driving struck the rear of a Motor Transit bus as it stopped for the Santa Fe railway crossing on West Chapman avenue Friday afternoon, police here reported.

BATTLESHIPS FOR NEWPORT

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Navy participation in the Tournament of Lights Aug. 21 has been assured by Admiral A. J. Hepburn, commander in chief, United States Fleet, in a letter to Mayor Harry H. Williamson.

The heavy cruisers "Astoria" and the "Tuscaloosa" will be present for the big Orange County harbor celebration, according to word just received from the navy yard, Puget Sound. Captain D. Mc D. Le Bret, chief of staff, United States Fleet, writes Mayor Williamson of Newport Beach as follows:

"Replying to your letter requesting that two cruisers be assigned to visit Newport Beach and Balboa and participate in the Tournament of Lights celebration, the commander in chief, United States Fleet, Admiral A. J. Hepburn, has directed me to inform you that it has been found possible for the heavy cruisers U. S. S. Astoria and Tuscaloosa to participate in this celebration. As requested by you, one of these vessels will anchor off Newport Beach, and the other at the Balboa pier. Captain C. C. Gill, U. S. Navy, commanding the Astoria, will be the senior officer present at Newport Harbor, and I am quite sure that he will be very glad to arrange with you the details of searchlight display and illumination by the vessels under his command, and also inform you as to the time these vessels will arrive off Newport Harbor."

Mayor Williamson will communicate immediately with Captain Gill and the hours for the display of searchlights and illumination will be announced as soon as definite word is received from navy officials.

DOUBLE PARTY HONORS GUESTS

OCEANVIEW.—Mrs. Jerry King was a party hostess this week, entertaining at a double event in honor of two guests.

Mrs. Gwendolin Singletary was complimented with a stork shower and Mrs. May Anderson, returning to San Bernardino after a visit at the King home, was showered with a farewell gift.

Attending the party were Mrs. Tom Albert, Mrs. Tracy Bragg, Midway City; Mrs. Don Zimmerman, Mrs. Edith Beaudreau, Mrs. Payne, Garden Grove; Mrs. Polly Greer, Mrs. Belva Scherer, Mrs. Mary McIntyre, Mrs. Dexter Hayhurst, Huntington Beach; Mrs. Jack Strawbridge, Mrs. Agnes Kuykendall, Springdale. Bunco was played with prizes won by Mrs. Kuykendall, Mrs. Maynard, Mrs. Strawbridge and Mrs. Greer.

ONE HURT IN ISLAND CRASH

NEWPORT-BALBOA.—Hal Lomen, 2130 Addison Way, Los Angeles, was treated by a local physician here yesterday following a collision near the Balboa Island pier, in which he suffered severe lacerations about the head.

A car driven by Lomen collided with one operated by Alice May Bartonson, 1405 Linden avenue, Long Beach, police reported.

Mission Groups Join at Grove

GARDEN GROVE.—Members of the Home and Foreign Missionary societies of the First Methodist church met at the West Chapman avenue home of Mrs. J. O. Arkley for a joint all-day meeting Thursday.

During business sessions in the morning Mrs. S. C. Oertly, supply secretary for the Home group, distributed fruit jars which the members will fill and send to missionary homes. The Foreign society made plans for sending a birthday gift to Miss Agnes Dunn, missionary nurse in India.

Mrs. Edward Chaffee, in charge of the afternoon program, told of missionary homes and stations throughout the United States. Mrs. J. C. Mitchell conducted the devotional service.

Dinner Honors Mrs. Anna Helm

TALBERT.—Mrs. Anna Helm returned to her home at Talbert road this week after a stay of several months in Northern California.

As a welcome home, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Robb, her son-in-law and daughter, were hosts at a family dinner in her honor. The party included Mr. and Mrs. Willard White, San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Squires, Wilmington, and Verna Helm, Los Angeles.

Fete Visitors At Smelter

SMELTZER.—Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Heil were dinner hosts this week, entertaining a family party in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jenkins, of Kansas.

Dinner was served in the outdoor recreation room of the home, with places arranged for Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Lucas, Victorville; Mr. and Mrs. William Allen and Mrs. Minnie Allen, Santa Ana.

AT LAKE ARROWHEAD

LAGUNA BEACH.—Mrs. J. S. Thurston is spending two weeks in the Thurston cottage at Lake Arrowhead. Mrs. Thurston's guests are her sister, Ruth Harding of Bakersfield and Blanche Regnier, also of Bakersfield.

INVESTIGATE CAR BLAZE

ORANGE.—Local police and firemen still were puzzled this morning over a strange automobile accident and fire yesterday, in which a car was destroyed, but no one injured.

Jack Triplett, 106 East Chestnut, Santa Ana, turned in a call to police that a car was burning on Vista avenue, officers said today. They rushed to the scene after notifying fire fighters at the state forestry headquarters, but could find no identifying marks on the car, officers said.

The fire was extinguished after the machine had been almost destroyed, and it was found the car was registered to E. W. Gebb, 262 South Avenue 19, Los Angeles. Later Gebb and a woman companion were found walking toward the county hospital on Chapman avenue, police added. Neither was hurt. They reported the car's owner refused to explain cause of the accident or why the car had been abandoned.

Doings Of Yorba Lindans

James Duffy, foreman at the orange house in Yorba Linda, was surprised at his home Wednesday evening on his birthday anniversary. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pritchard, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dunham and Miss Gladys Malone of Yorba Linda and Mr. and Mrs. Eckhardt of Anaheim and Patricia and Wallace Duffy.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Hadley and daughter, Georgia, of Siloam Springs, Ark., arrived Thursday for a visit with Mrs. Hadley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Ross of Park Place.

Mrs. A. B. McDavid and Miss Marsha Vernon, who have been vacationing for the past several days at Laguna Beach, returned home Thursday evening.

Orange Club Has Port Picnic

ORANGE.—An annual event of many years' standing is the beach picnic of the U. S. A. club, always held at the Marion Filippen cottage in Newport Beach, which was an event of Friday.

Two guests, Mrs. D. F. Campbell and Mrs. Fannie McDowell, besides children of the club members, were present. Club members who attended were Mesdames Hal Brown, Jane Welsh, William Hill, L. L. Williams, E. R. Forbes, Alvin Clifford, Henry Campbell, B. D. Stanley, Earl Wood, Walter Lovell and Miss Bertha Young, all of Orange; Mrs. Willis Perkins, Garden Grove; Mrs. Carl Young, Fullerton; Mrs. Lee Ward, Tustin, and Mrs. Jerry Young, Anaheim.

GROWING PAINS

By Phillips

"How's that for a couple of new words — I picked them up from a truck driver."

District Leader Visits Westminster Rebekah Lodge

WESTMINSTER.—The official visit of Olive Patton, Fullerton, district deputy president, marked the regular meeting of the Aloha Rebekah lodge Tuesday evening.

She was accompanied by her marshal, Edna Grunwald, and four guards. Faye Weinschenk, noble grand of the local lodge, presided at the meeting. Entertainment features of the evening were directed by Mrs. Cordelia Slate, who introduced Mrs. E. L. Hensley, trumpet.

Council Frowns On Parade Entry

LAGUNA BEACH.—The city will not be officially represented in the Native Sons and Daughters of Orange county celebration to be held Sept. 9 in Santa Monica, it was learned this week.

The city council turned down the invitation to ride in an official car in the parade celebrating the occasion, as some weeks ago, the council turned down a similar invitation to take part in a "better babies" festival to be held soon in Santa Monica.

The prospective design for an Orange county float, the dominant theme of which was a huge orange, was nevertheless looked upon favorably by the council.

CITY CLOSES STEEP ROAD

LAGUNA BEACH.—The city's unofficial endurance testing ground for amateur motorcyclists was closed this week by police order. Acacia drive, on account of its steeper-than-45-degree grade, has long been a source of mixed wonderment and anger to motorists who have, with brakes squeezed to the ultimate and in low gear, catapulted down the hill in roller coaster fashion.

Motorcyclists, however, had been finding the Acacia drive hill a pleasant diversion—much to the chagrin of property owners adjacent, who found the constant roar of motors not at all pleasant.

Police reasons for barricading the street were that the hill was dangerous, and signs were erected in view of public safety. Police Commissioner Jester explained.

Children Give Mission Program

GARDEN GROVE.—The Children's crusaders missionary society directed by their instructor, Mrs. Laura Wright, presented the program for the meeting Thursday of the Baptist church missionary society at the church bungalow.

The program included a reading by Frances Kester, a vocal solo by Carolyn Furry, scripture reading by Harold and Howard Christensen, and a violin solo by June Smith accompanied at the piano by Miss Betty Lehnardt. Several songs were sung by a group of girls from the Herald's class, Mary Wright, Dorothy Collins, Norma Ferguson, and June and Bertha May Smith.

Former Grove Resident Feted

GARDEN GROVE.—Mrs. Oscar Rutledge, who now makes her home in Anaheim, was surprised Thursday evening when members of the Friendly Women's club called at her home for a farewell party, as she is leaving soon for a two months' trip to Illinois and Iowa.

In the party were Mesdames Charles McConnell, E. G. Neumann, Charles Donahue, Leo Zaket, Ray Hepp and G. A. Luz.

Surprise Honors Mrs. E. F. Baker

OCEANVIEW.—Mrs. E. F. Baker was a surprised dinner hostess recently, the event marking her birthday anniversary. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Baker, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Green, Ontario; Park Young, Alameda and Mr. and Mrs. Hank Shelton, Artesia.

INFORMATION DEPARTMENT

—Buy It In Santa Ana—

Agency—Dodge-Plymouth

See our new 1937 models NOW ON DISPLAY. Motorworld's greatest values. Dodge commercial cars and trucks. Factory trained mechanics. Guaranteed used cars. L. D. Coffing Co., 311 E. 5th St.

Air Conditioned Ice Refrigerators

Without cost or obligation you can prove to your own satisfaction that modern ice refrigeration REALLY is better. Either phone or tell our ice service man you want a new refrigerator on trial. Diamond Ice Co., 1106 East First St. Tel. 716.

Appliances—"Electrical"

HOTPOINT Electric Refrigerators and Ranges; General Electric Radios and the entire line of electrical appliances, including Washing Machines, Ironers, Water Heaters and electrical cooking appliances. Large and complete stock to select from. DUNSTAN ELECTRIC CO., 218 North Broadway, Santa Ana.

Auto Brakes—Harry Harlow

It pays to take your car to a specialist. My men are factory trained. All types of work from simple adjustments to complete rebuild. In Orange County since 1920—your assurance of satisfaction. Official brake station 1777. Harry Harlow, 5th and Bush.

Auto Electric—Gohres'—Radio

Complete battery, starter, generator and ignition service. Official headlight adjusting. Radio and refrigerator sales and service. Any make auto or home radio repaired. 116 E. 5th St. Tel. 5506.

Auto Loans—Barney Koster

311 East First St. at Orange. A quick, confidential loan service at the lowest possible rates. Always a complete stock of guaranteed cars at easy terms.

Auto Parts—Hockaday & Phillips

Machine shop service, cylinder boring and grinding. Lathe work, welding, brake drums turned etc. Distributor McQuay-Norris motor parts for cars, trucks, tractors. Raybestos brake lining and the most complete parts stock in Orange County at 201 Spurgeon St.

Auto Tires—Firestone

We save you money on your car needs. Complete service. Auto supplies—factory rebuilt tires—official brake service. Batteries. Tractor tires and tractor change overs. Radios. Use our budget plan at 1st and Main. Firestone Auto Supply & Service Stores.

awnings—Inman—Tents

Garden Furniture, Tarps, Sleeping Porch Curtains. Anything in canvas. Rugs cleaned, sized and shampooed. Mattresses made over like new. Established in Santa Ana over 36 years at 614 West 4th St.

Building Materials

VAN DIEN-YOUNG CO.—Office and yards, 508 E. 4th. Heavy trucking—rock and sand—cement, steel, metal lath, lime, plaster, brick, stucco, sewer pipe, etc. Building materials from the ground up.

Cleaners & Dyers

WASHINGTON CLEANERS & DYERS, 1109 N. Main. Every garment entrusted to us passes a rigid inspection before it is sent back to you. We offer reliable, efficient methods, and economical price to render you complete cleaning services.

DAIRY—Patterson Dairy

Milk—cream—butter—milk—chocolate drink—cottage cheese. Using the most exacting standards of quality; the greatest care in bottling. The safest and BEST for your children. Daily home service. 100% locally owned and operated. Dairy on West 1st St.

Feed & Seed—R. B. Newcom

31 years selling good feed. Fine line of stock, poultry and rabbit feeds, remedies, supplies. Mesquite, alfalfa, grain, hay. One of the largest assortments in California of flower, vegetable, lawn and field seeds. Headquarters for sprays, insecticides and fertilizers. Orange Co. Distributors ranch and garden supplies at Bdw. & 5th.

Irrigation Supplies—Peerless

S. A. Plant W. 5th and King Sts. Office 273 S. Main St., Orange. Telephone Orange 722 for concrete irrigation pipe, septic tanks, machine made pipe, concrete brick, porous drainage pipe. Estimates cheerfully given. Peerless Concrete Pipe Co.

Implements—Wm. F. Lutz Co.

Oliver Tractors, Farm Machinery, Repairs. Dyrr Subsoilers, Discs and Harrows. Chisels. Harness and leather repairs. A complete implement and farm machinery service at 218-220 E. Fifth St.

Lumber—Curran

Current prices are attractive. Large stocks of lumber, sash, doors, nails, roofing, panels, wallboard and building materials. Visit us or phone 8. 1003 4th St. Huntington Beach yard at Lake and Acacia. Telephone H. B. 3861.

Paint—Wallpaper

DIETLER PAINT CO., "The Colorful Corner" at Fifth and Broadway. See our windows. Stop at our store and see panels of color schemes for interior and exterior decoration. Phone for information and application of paints, varnishes, lacquers or enamels.

Plumbing

PACIFIC PLUMBING CO., 318 North Ross St. Electrolux Gas Refrigerators, Rudd and Continental Water Heaters. Magic Chef Gas Ranges, 1900 Whirlpool Washington Machines. Plumbing and heating contractors. Standard, Sanitary and Crane Plumbing Fixtures. Expert, reasonable repair service.

Roofing—Owen Roofing Co.

More than 20 years as roofing specialists in your protection and assurance of satisfaction. Composition, tile, composition and wood shingles. Re-roofing. Roof repairs. Estimates cheerfully supplied at 509 4th St.

Rugs, Venetian Blinds, Lino.

Rug and carpet cleaning, domestic and oriental. Upholstered furniture. You are invited to visit our works to see how your cleaning is done. Ludlum Carpet Cleaning Plants, 1622 South Main St.

Termite Control

COAST TERMITE AND FUNGUS CONTROL CO., 1227 South Main. Free estimates. Work guaranteed. Three-year control service. State and City License. Experienced operators. We go anywhere in Orange county.

Venetian Blinds

Venetian Blinds, Upholstering, Furniture Refinishing. Tel. 5746. Roller bearing, rust-proof hardware in our Venetian Blinds. Economical because they are permanent. FAIRMAC STUDIOS, 116 South Sycamore, Santa Ana.

For Real Bargains Shop In Santa Ana

SPORTS
Copy-WrightedODDS
and ENDSBy
PAUL
WRIGHT

Stan Gould, the U. C. L. A. grider who made good at San Juan Capistrano and Brea in basketball coaching, will desert the Orange league to assume his new position in the athletic department of Jefferson High school, Los Angeles, next month.

Stan is a swell fellow, and his many friends have been pouring in the congratulations on his promotion.

Louie (Neva) Novikoff is to Ponca City of the Western Association this summer what he was to Huntington Beach in the National league here last year.

The switch from softball to baseball was easy for the great Russian kid, who currently leads the Western Association in hitting at a clip of .368.

Neva has visited the plate 370 official times, with 136 hits of which 14 have been home runs, four triples and 33 doubles. His big willow had brought in 98 runs up to Aug. 3. Louie's most heated rival for batting laurels is 14 points behind—Mele of Muskogee, Okla., .354.

There were so many violations last year that the Division of Fish and Game will have a larger force of wardens in the field with the opening of dove season in all California districts Sept. 1. . . . The season will run through Oct. 16, with shooting hours from 7 a. m. until sunset. . . . A three-shell limit has been set and daily bag and possession limits will be 15 doves.

Roger Dominguez of the Elks continues to set the Santa Ana City softball league afire with an unofficial average of .466.

Fred Cartwright, who wanted to graduate to the Stars but could not because of their Friday night playing date, is running second at .444.

LIONETTES VS.
ESCONDIDO
TONIGHT

Coach Alvin (Whitey) Edwards' Orange Lionettes, fresh from a 10-9 victory over the Pomona girls, will play Escondido's formidable team on the Orange city park grounds at 8:15 tonight.

The game will mark the opening of one 500-seat section of Orange's new grandstand, and will be especially attractive because Escondido holds a 9-7 victory over Orange.

Miss Lois Terry, blonde southpaw, will pitch for Orange. There will be a 15-cent admission charge of all fans.

Percentages Show
Two Teams Tied,
But One Leading!

NEW YORK. (AP)—The unusual situation of a team being half a game in front of another on the won-and-lost records but tied in percentage came up today in the standings of the Brooklyn Dodgers and Philadelphia Phillies, who are fighting for the National league cellar.

The Dodgers have won 40 and lost 60 games so far this season. The Phils have won 42 and dropped 63. On these figures, the Brooklyners are a half game in front, winning two less but losing three less.

However, the Dodgers with 40 victories in 100 games, show a percentage of .400. The Phils, winning 42 of 104, also carry out to an even .400 for the season. Figure it out yourself.

BASEBALL STANDINGS

PACIFIC COAST LEAGUE				NATIONAL LEAGUE				AMERICAN LEAGUE
	W.	L.	Pct.		W.	L.	Pct.		W.	L.	Pct.
San Diego	80	57	.584	Chicago	66	37	.641	New York	70	31	.693
Sacramento	79	57	.581	New York	59	43	.578	Boston	58	42	.580
San Francisco	72	64	.529	St. Louis	56	44	.560	Detroit	58	42	.580
Los Angeles	72	64	.529	Pittsburgh	53	48	.525	Chicago	58	42	.580
Portland	69	65	.515	Boston	50	54	.481	Cleveland	60	45	.571
Oakland	57	78	.422	Cincinnati	41	58	.414	Washington	45	53	.459
Seattle	56	78	.418	Brooklyn	40	60	.400	St. Louis	32	68	.320
Missions	52	85	.380	Philadelphia	42	63	.400	Philadelphia	31	69	.310

Yesterday's Results
Los Angeles, 4; Portland, 2.
Sacramento, 3; San Diego, 1.
Seattle, 3; San Francisco, 0.
Missions, 3; Oakland, 0.

Games Today
Los Angeles at Portland (night).
Oakland at Missions.
San Francisco at Seattle (night).
Sacramento at San Diego.

TENNIS OPEN
LURES 200 HERE SUNDAY
San Clemente Holds Hill-Climb;
Stars Gain Shaughnessy PlayoffUPWARDS OF 3000 TO SEE
CYCLISTSDewey Bonkrud, Santa
Ana, Races Against
Well-Known Riders

Revival of one of Orange county's oldest sports, the motorcycle hill climb, will be held at the Hill Stute ranch, San Clemente, beginning at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow. There will be a 40-cent admission charge, and a crowd upwards of 3000 fans is anticipated.

Sponsored by the Orange County Motorcycle club as its part in the "Grand National Rally Day for Cyclists," the program will consist of Class C competition with 45 and 80-cubic inch motors. The first six places in both 40 and 80-inch events will qualify for the main event, with the American Motorcycle Association presenting a trophy to the champion.

Machines will be the regular stock-road cycles.

The San Clemente hill is 300 feet long, with a 65 per cent grade on the first 200 feet and a 78 per cent grade on the last 100. The course is 30 feet wide, and riders must remain inside the lanes.

Harold Mathewson of Fresno, Pacific Coast Class B champion, will compete with such Orange county riders as Dewey Bonkrud of Santa Ana and Malcolm Gregg, "Chuck" Pollard and Ray Hartwell of Anaheim. Ed Hinkle, noted racer, also will ride.

The Orange County Motorcycle club is an old-time organization, originating in 1914.

HAAN'S NINE
WINS, 7-5

Manager Jack Fredericks poked two doubles and a homer, but his Grant Ring Sales' nine lost to O. R. Haan by a 7 to 5 score in an Automotive league softball attraction at Santiago Creek park last night.

FISHING!

LOS ANGELES. (AP)—Fishing notes and reports:

Trout and bass fishing fair to good in High Sierras region. . . . Bass fishing in San Diego county lakes still slow, most catches being perch and crappie. . . . Barracuda and mackerel plentiful in ocean fishing generally. . . . Yellowtail and bass catches improving.

Season's record at Catalina Island for biggest Marlin. . . . Douglass' film actor, gaffed 35½ pounds. . . . Yellowtail catches better.

South down the coast:
Point Mugu—Large halibut from barge and pier. . . . few white sea bass.

REDONDO BEACH—Anglers on live bait boats catching some white sea bass as well as more plentiful barracuda, bass, bonito.

SAN PEDRO—Boats fishing both local and Catalina waters making fair catches of barracuda, few white sea bass, yellowtail.

LONG BEACH—Same and occasional tuna.

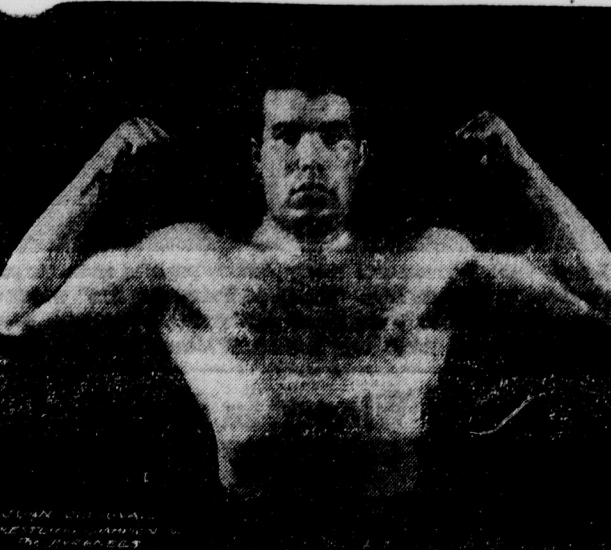

HUNTINGTON BEACH—Two tuna, several yellowtail. . . . good catches of barracuda, bass, halibut from barge. . . . surf waders doing fairly well about three miles north of pier.

NEWPORT—BALBOA—Croaker fishing in bay improved in past few days. . . . barracuda, white sea bass from live bait boats. . . . halibut, barracuda, mackerel from barge. . . . yellowtail fishing reported good.

SAN CLEMENTE—Good takes of bass, barracuda, halibut. . . . several yellowtail, white sea bass. . . . largest recent bass 25 pounds from fishing picking up.

SAN DIEGO—Best yellowtail catches in two weeks. . . . on Aug. 10, two boats reported 50 yellowtail aboard by 9 a. m. . . . sport-fishers reported catch of 73 same day. . . . several marlin taken from trolling boats. . . . one 300½ pounds.

Returns to O. C. A. C. Mat Wars

Don Juan Olguival-Pico, powerful cousin of Paulino Uzcudun returns to the Orange County Athletic club Monday night to wrestle Jack McArthur in the supporting feature to the Ali Baba-Hans Steinke main event. Pico was No. 1 drawing card here last year.

PICO TO WRESTLE M'ARTHUR
ON ALI BABA-STEINKE BILL

A heavyweight wrestler who a year ago consistently packed the Orange County Athletic club gallery with Mexican and Basque wrestling fans—Juan Olguival-Pico, powerful cousin of Paulino Uzcudun, the Basque woodchopper—returns to his former stamping grounds of Monday night when he meets Jack McArthur in one of the supporting matches to the Ali Baba-Hans Steinke feature.

Olguival-Pico and McArthur, the man who almost brought down the roof of the arena and the fans on his neck last week, meet in the special attraction, filling the vacancy created when the state athletic commission ordered California wrestling promoters from featuring girl wrestlers at this time.

Clara Mortensen and Rita Martinez had been billed for a rematch. Although the girls will be missed, the substitute match is expected to fill the bill and give fans one of the best cards offered in months.

Many consider the Ali Baba-Steinke bout the best signed this year. Other attractions will be "Jumbo" Kennedy, 450-pounder, vs. Baron Ginsberg; Kiman Kudo vs. Ignacio Martinez, and "Ironman Louie" Miller vs. Young Stecher.

Olguival-Pico and McArthur, the man who almost brought down the roof of the arena and the fans on his neck last week, meet in the special attraction, filling the vacancy created when the state athletic commission ordered California wrestling promoters from featuring girl wrestlers at this time.

IRVINE, BREA VIE FOR TITLE
Champions Drub Holly, 15-1

The stage was all set today for a colorful seven-act drama between Irvine and Brea for the County Nightball league championship.

Rising to new heights, Ernie Lagier's 1936 champions drubbed Holly Sugar, 15 to 1, at Irvine last night to win their third and deciding game.

Brea, Virgil Kiger's formidable team which eliminated San Juan Capistrano in a similar three-out-of-five game series, will open a four-out-of-seven game playoff with Irvine for the County league crown at Brea Monday night.

Home fields will be alternated, and if the series goes the full route, the seventh game will be played in neutral grounds—probably at Tustin.

The playoff dates:
Aug. 16—Irvine at Brea.
Aug. 19—Brea at Irvine.
Aug. 23—Irvine at Brea.
Aug. 26—Brea at Irvine.
Aug. 30—Irvine at Brea.
Sept. 1—Brea at Irvine.
Sept. 3—Brea vs. Irvine on neutral field—Tustin.

All games to be umpired by Francis (Pep) Lemon, Archie Hawkins and Chet Congdon, will be called for 8:15 p. m. There will be a 25-cent admission charge for adults. Children will be admitted free.

Over at Irvine before an enthusiastic crowd last night, LeRoy (Chub) Sears of the Bearpicks celebrated with two home runs, and Pitcher Ira DeBusk had a perfect night with four hits, in addition to holding Holly to seven scattered blows.

George Padias of Irvine hit two for two, scoring three runs. He walked twice and sacrificed once.

Irvine drove Henry Martinez from the mound in the seventh. Brother "Smiley" Martinez lasted less than an inning. Southpaw Armand Hanson relieving him in the eighth.

Holly Sugar played a good game, but it was simply too much for Irvine.

Holly Sugar AB R H P O A E
Struck, rf. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Lierman, ss. 4 0 0 1 0 0
R. Cruz, 2b. 4 0 1 1 0 0
E. Mart, sp. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Lacy, 3b. 3 1 1 0 0 0
Smith, cf. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Kinney, lb. 3 0 0 1 0 0
Mott, lf. 3 0 0 1 0 0
S. Mart, p. 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 35 1 7 10 0 0

Irvine AB R H P O A E
Struck, rf. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Lierman, ss. 4 0 0 1 0 0
R. Cruz, 2b. 4 0 1 1 0 0
E. Mart, sp. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Lacy, 3b. 3 1 1 0 0 0
Smith, cf. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Kinney, lb. 3 0 0 1 0 0
Mott, lf. 3 0 0 1 0 0
S. Mart, p. 0 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 35 1 7 10 0 0

Summary
Home runs—C. Sears (2), Staples.
Three-base hits—Padias.
Two-base hits—DeBusk, R. Hines, H. Sears.
Struck out by R. Martinez, 7; by DeBusk, 5; by Hanson, 2. Bases on balls—off H. Martinez, 2; off Hanson, 2. Passed ball—Salcido. Umpires—Francis (Pep) Lemon, Chet Congdon and White. Scorer—Walt Collins.

Yesterday's Results
Cleveland, 7; Chicago, 3.
Detroit, 7; St. Louis, 6.
Philadelphia, 4; New York, 3.
Washington, 3; Boston, 0.

Games Today
Chicago at Cleveland.
New York at Philadelphia.
Boston at Washington.
St. Louis at Detroit (two).

ORANGE NINE BEATEN ON
ERRORS, 2-1Westminster Upsets
Anaheim, 2-1, in 14
Innings at Anaheim

NATIONAL NIGHTBALL LEAGUE
W. L. Pct.
Huntington Beach 19 7 .731
xSan Bernardino 17 9 .654
Santa Ana 15 11 .577
xAnaheim 14 12 .538
Orange 11 15 .423
Westminster 9 17 .346
xProtected game to be replayed.

Results Last Night
Westminster, 2; Orange, 1 (14 innings).
Huntington Beach, 3; San Bernardino, 2 (Thursday).

Games Tuesday
Santa Ana at Huntington Beach.
Westminster at Orange.
Anaheim at San Bernardino.

The pressure was off today for Santa Ana's Stars, who can lose their final three games—Huntington Beach, Westminster and Anaheim—and still enter the Shaughnessy playoffs for the four top teams in the National Nightball league last night.

Aided by two errors which spelled the downfall of sensational Roger Larimer, Manager "Doc" Smith's Stars eked out a 2-1 decision over Orange's chattering Cubs at the Municipal bowl last night.

The game, witnessed by one of the best crowds of the season, was a masterful pitchers' duel between Stan Jacobmeyer, the Riverside boy, and the strike-out artist, Larimer.

CUBS 'BLOW UP'
Jacobmeyer allowed only three hits to Larimer's four, but Larimer fanned 10 Stars to Jacobmeyer's two Cubs.

The main difference was in the support—Orange went to pieces for two errors that cost Liston (Memphy) Hill's Cubs the game in the second inning. It happened this way:

Wallin, the Stars' new catcher, led off with a screaming single to center. Nan Coots tapped a perfect bunt in front of the plate, with four Orange Cubs making a frantic dash after it.

Larry Leichtfuss, first baseman, scooped it up, whistled and threw to Second Baseman "T. Walker, who was covering first. The ball, however, hit Coots in the head and bounced into right field, as Wallin scampered around the bases to score, with Coots going to third.

Nelson Struck, rightfielder, relayed the ball to third in an attempt to catch Coots, but the ball rolled through Third-Baseman Roy Hanne's legs and Coots scored—all in one complicated play.

Orange picked up one of the runs, 2-1, in the third when Larimer doubled sharply down the left-field foul line, took third on Walt Gunther's sacrifice and scored on Ted Walker's long fly to rightfield. But after the third, the Cubs were held to one hit by the clever Jacobmeyer, who is slated to pitch his last game at Huntington Beach next night before enrolling at the University of California, Berkeley.

GOES 14 INNINGS
Over at Anaheim, Westminster carried the Valencia to 14 innings to win on errors, 2 to 1, although Francis Penhaligon inspired Avoca to a 10-0 victory.

Westminster scored in the first on "Sonny" Rodger's single, George Preble's error and Joe Hosack's right-field triple. . . . Anaheim tied the count in the sixth on singles by Preble and Randolph Bell, after Westminster had the bases, but failed to score in the second. . . . Westminster's winning rally in the fourteenth was ignited by Rodger's single, which Bell fumbled and permitted Rodgers to reach second. Joe Hosack grounded out, but Rodger's single first on a cheap hit when Pitcher Lyle Morse elected to hold Rodger at third. Hale popped up for the second out. Bob Hosack grounded to Morse, who fumbled the ball, and Rodger raced home with a Westminster victory.

SANTA ANA
Schwartz, lf. 4 0 0 1 0 0
Wiener, cf. 4 0 1 1 0 0
Coots, rf. 3 1 0 4 0 0
Comstock, ss. 3 0 0 4 0 0
Wallin, c. 1 1 0 1 0 0
Smith, 2b. 4 0 1 2 1 1
Young, 3b. 3 0 0 1 0 0
Mott, lf. 3 0 0 1 0 0
Jacobmeyer, p. 3 0 0 0 0 0
Totals 31 2 4 27 12 1

ORANGE
W. Gunther, cf. 4 0 1 2 0 0
Walker, 2b. 2 0 0 3 1 0
Hanne, 3b. 2 0 0 0 0 0
Struck, rf. 2 0 0 0 0 0
Koral, c. 3 0 1 1 2 0
Salcido, lf. 3 0 0 1 0 0
W. Leichtfuss, ss. 3 0 0 2 0 0
L. Leichtfuss, lb. 3 0 0 0 0 0
Larimer, p. 3 1 1 1 0 0
Totals 26 1 3 27 9 0

Summary
Two-base hits—Larimer. Struck out by Larimer, 10; by Jacobmeyer, 2. Bases on balls—off Jacobmeyer, 2. Sacrifices—Walker (2), W. Gunther, Ballard, Coots.

Edson AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Westminster AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Summary
Two-base hits—Larimer. Struck out by Larimer, 10; by Jacobmeyer, 2. Bases on balls—off Jacobmeyer, 2. Sacrifices—Walker (2), W. Gunther, Ballard, Coots.

Edson AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Westminster AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Summary
Two-base hits—Larimer. Struck out by Larimer, 10; by Jacobmeyer, 2. Bases on balls—off Jacobmeyer, 2. Sacrifices—Walker (2), W. Gunther, Ballard, Coots.

Edson AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Westminster AB R H P O A E
Edson, 3b. 5 0 0 1 0 0
Webb, rf. 6 0 1 1 0 0
Montgomery, 2b. 6 1 2 1 0 0
L. Daley, ss. 6 0 2 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Stives, c. 6 0 0 1 0 0
Higgins, lb. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Morse, p. 5 0 1 1 0 0
Totals 51 1 10 10 0 0

Summary
Two-base hits—Larimer. Struck out by Larimer, 10; by Jacobmeyer, 2. Bases on balls—off Jacobmeyer, 2. Sacrifices—Walker (2), W. Gunther, Ballard, Coots.

Home Run No. 33 for Joe DiMaggio

Joe DiMaggio of the New York Yankees steps across home plate in the first inning of a doubleheader at Boston to chalk up homer No. 33. He drove in Frank Crosetti.

Cards Come Fast
Without 'Dizzy'By SID FEDER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The all-important, one-and-only (says he) Dizzy Dean, is beginning to look very much like a fifth wheel, at that.

Not that the great one isn't needed. If he was in there with his usual stuff, the Gas House Gang would be right in the thick of the National league pennant chase. But there're winning games without him—and that's what they pay off on. They've come up with some dozen supposedly ineffective elbowers, not the least of whom is good enough pitching from half a Grandpa Jesse Haines, and in the past few weeks, have started a drive that may yet make it tough for those pace-setting Chicago Cubs.

This sudden surge, a comeback of no mean proportions, has carried the Cards from fourth to third place, won 12 and tied one in 16 starts, and left them only two games back of the second-place Giants. And in all that stretch, Dizzy hasn't been as useful as a fur coat in a nudist colony.

In both of his starts in that 16-game run, he has been belted out, and has finished out of the money both times.

To state all the facts, Dizzy isn't right. He hasn't been right since the all-star game. But even without him, the Cards are doing all right. The burden has fallen largely on Lon Warneke, Lefty Bob Weiland, Grandpa Haines, St. Johnson, and the suddenly spry relief arm of Mike (One-man Team) Ryba. Of these, Weiland and Johnson have been the St. Louis life-savers.

Weiland has started four games during the run; Johnson has opened three. Weiland has pitched three complete, won three and lost none. Johnson has taken three and lost none.

Weiland did it again yesterday, pitching a 10-hitter to top the hopeless Pirates, 4-1, thereby stretching the Cards' current undefeated streak to seven in a row—six wins and one tie.

The Cards, however, did not pick up any ground on the leaders by the win, since both the Cubs and Giants triumphed. The Cubs, maintaining their 6½-game lead, posted a run-making record for the season by trouncing the Reds 22 (count 'em) to 6, with a 21-hit attack.

Carl Hubbell pitched his best game of the season, a six-hit, nine-strikeout performance, and the Giants blanked the Phils, 5-0.

The Yankees, poised to first division clubs, were humiliated, 4-3, by the last-place Athletics, who stopped the league-leaders cold with three hits.

This defeat did not cut their 11½-game lead, however, since the second-place Red Sox took a 3-0 beating at the hands of Washington's Senators. The Tigers took advantage of the Red Sox setback to pull up to a second-place tie with a 7-6 win over the Browns.

Cleveland's Indians knocked the White Sox down to fourth place with a 7-3 beating.

Lou Fette's six-hitter gave the Bees a 5-2 win over the Dodgers.

WAR ADMIRAL RACES AGAIN
SARATOGA SPRINGS, N. Y. (AP)—War Admiral, the little horse that won the nation's three-year-old championship last spring, came back to the races today after a two-month enforced vacation.

Under full racing colors, the fiery little son of Man o' War was to share honors with the Travers America's oldest race horse, in a gallop down the home stretch of the track where his daddy met his only defeat.

The public showing of "the runt," as his owner, Samuel D. Riddle, calls him, was planned to show racing fans that he is on the way back after a painful injury to his foot in the Belmont stakes June 7. Victory that day, added to the Kentucky Derby and the Preakness, gave the little colt his title.

"The runt is going places again," Riddle said as he patted his new stable ace. "He's working the three furlongs in speedy fashion now, and he'll be ready to run again this fall."

Immeasurable objective for the Admiral, Riddle said, is the Lawrence realization and, after that, the two miles of the Jockey club Cup, a race that stamps its winner as a real champion. Both are to be run at Belmont Park, the latter on Oct. 2.

San Diego's Padres, fighting to retain their Pacific Coast league leadership, hold but a half-game margin over the ambitious Sacramento Senators today.

The Senators, behind the two-hit pitching of Tony Freitas, subdued the Padres 3 to 1 in the southern city yesterday.

Los Angeles moved into third place in the percentage column, replacing San Francisco's Seals.

The Angels took a doubleheader, 4 to 2 and 7 to 4, from Portland, while the Seals were losing a pair to Seattle by scores of 3 to 0 and 4 to 0.

'ARTISTS AND MODELS' OPENS

Broadway Film Rated At Entertainment Tops

Rated in previews as the top musical comedy-romance of the year, "Artists and Models," will open at the Broadway theater tomorrow with a cast headed by Jack Benny, Ida Lupino, Gail Patrick and Richard Arlen. Second attraction on the bill will be "White Bondage," with Jean Muir.

Hundreds of the most beautiful girls in Hollywood, two smashing orchestras, Louis Armstrong's Swing orchestra and Andre Kostelanetz' orchestra, and the six greatest living artists are featured in "Artists and Models," a cock-eyed melange of tunes, gags and girls. Jack Benny plays the head of the craziest advertising agency in the world which is headed by the rocks because the comedian devotes all his time to thinking about the forthcoming artists and models ball, of which he is chairman. When Benny promises two beautiful girls he will marry both of them and that both can be queen of the ball, things happen with a vengeance.

The great cast of "Artists and Models" includes Ben Blue, the Yacht Club boys; special numbers by Martha Raye; Judy, Anne and Zeke; Connie Boswell, famed songstress; Sandra Storm, England's most beautiful model, and the six greatest living artists, Peter Arno, McClelland Barclay, Arthur William Brown, Rube Goldberg, John La Gatta and Russell Patterson, whose famous "Personettes," carved miniature figures, also play an important part. The picture introduces six new song hits.

"White Bondage" is a melodrama dealing with the humble but picturesque cotton pickers of the remote regions of the deep South. The story has to do with "share croppers," who grow and pick the cotton on a percentage basis, meanwhile getting their food, rent, clothing and so on from the large land owners. In the hands of unscrupulous storekeepers, who represent the owners, the share croppers finally see through the crooked scheme and strike back. Besides Miss Muir, the cast includes Joseph King, Harry Davenport, Howard Phillips and Gordon Oliver. Selected short subjects include a novelty, "Spring Festival," a color cartoon, and World News events.

'Topper,' Schoolboy Films End Tonight

One of the most unusual and hilarious comedies ever produced, "Topper," based on Thorne Smith's delightful novel of whimsy, wit and satire, shows for the last time tonight at the Broadway theater with a second feature, "The Hoosier Schoolboy," starring Mickey Rooney.

Richness and luxury provide the background for the fast-moving and astounding action of "Topper," which co-stars Constance Bennett and Cary Grant, with Roland Young as "Topper."

With three prominent stars in the cast, "The Hoosier Schoolboy" is the story of the son of a town's forgotten war hero, now a shell-shocked drunkard, Mickey Rooney, who was featured in "Captains Courageous," plays the title role. Short subjects include a Porky cartoon and World News events.

Fights Last Night

By the Associated Press
NEW YORK (AP) — Steve Crushner, Casey, 225, Ireland, threw Abe Goldberg, 215, New York.
NORTH BERGEN, N. J. — Ernie Dusek, 228, Omaha, Neb., pinned Eddie Meske, 218, Ohio.

STATE
LAST TIMES TONIGHT
Complete Show After 9:30

IT HAPPENED OUT WEST
PAUL KELLY, JUDITH ALLEN
ALSO NEWSREEL
Charley Chase Comedy
Popeye Cartoon
"JUNGLE JIM" CHAP. 3

Starting Sunday
Continuous From 12:00

A dancing lady who found herself doing a tap dance to the wedding march!

JOAN CRAWFORD
As a love 'em and leave 'em lady!

I LIVE MY LIFE
with
BRIAN AHERNE
Frank MORGAN
Aline MacMahon

ALSO
60 MINUTES OF LAFFS
"3 Legionnaires"
—with—
ROBERT ARMSTRONG
LYLE TALBOT

NEWS EVENTS

Artists and a Model

Jack Benny, Ida Lupino and Richard Arlen are shown above in an intimate scene from the spectacular musical comedy-romance, "Artists and Models," which opens at the Broadway theater tomorrow with a second film, "White Bondage," starring Jean Muir.

She Lived Her Life

Pictured in a scene from "I Live My Life" are Joan Crawford and Fred Keating. The play, a dramatic and gloriously human comedy, begins tomorrow at Walker's State theater and continues until Tuesday. The second feature on the program is "Three Legionnaires."

Joe Brown, Boris Karloff, to Compete in Broadway Show

Two new features, offering a well-balanced program of entertainment, will open at the Broadway theater next Thursday, it was announced today by Manager Lester J. Fountain. The pictures are "Riding on Air," starring Joe E. Brown and "Night Key," with Boris Karloff.

Based on one of the popular Elmer Lane stories, "Riding on Air" is the funniest and most entertaining comedy the mammoth-mouthed star has made. The film offers the mobile-visaged Joe in the role of a small town newspaper correspondent for a big city daily, his misadventures getting him into and out of trouble with startling rapidity. When he finally resorts to becoming an airplane pilot to beat his rivals to the biggest story of the year, he finds himself up in the air. Although he has a nose for news, the comedian usually manages to score a scoop for his rival paper. Guy Kibbee is a slicker who makes Joe E. Brown the goat. Florence Rice has the leading feminine role.

In "Night Life" Boris Karloff makes an amazing rightabout face, tosses away the monster mask and steps forth as a thoroughly likeable human being. He portrays the inventor of burglar alarm systems. When his partner cheats him of his patents, thereby robbing his daughter of security in life, he wrecks his enemy's burglar alarm system and defies police, rangers and anybody to force his foe to give him his just rights. The picture carries suspense and action to a thrilling climax. The cast includes Alan Baxter, Samuel Hinds, Jean Rogers, Hobart Cavanaugh and others.

Coffey's alimony payments were reduced yesterday by Superior Judge James L. Allen after a lengthy hearing in which Mrs. Coffey said she earned an average of only $22.50 a month as a motion picture extra.

She turned down her last offer of a job, she told the court, because it required her to be in a mob scene with 1000 other extras in a lifeboat scene used to illustrate the Chicago fire.

"It looked too dangerous," she said, "and a lot of people were hurt."

Mrs. Coffey won an interlocutory decree last year, which became final in April of this year. Twice, she testified, she had had writs of attachment levied on his salary for alimony.

ENDS TONITE

WALKER'S 3d & Bush
FREE PARKING

The MARX BROS.
"A DAY AT THE RACES"
World News Events

West the MISSUS'
VICTOR MOORE • HELEN BRODERICK
An RKO Radio Picture

STARTING TOMORROW—CONTINUOUS FROM 1:00
BROUGHT BACK!

MURDEROUS SPIES INVADE OLYMPIC GAMES
WARLAND
"CHARLIE CHAN AT THE OLYMPICS"
KATHARINE DE MILLE
PAULINE MOORE
ALLAN LANE
KEFE LURE

PAUL MUNI in "SCARFACE"
with
ANN DVORAK
BORIS KARLOFF
GEORGE RAFT
OSGOOD PERKINS
KAREN MORLEY
VINCE BARNETT

20c To 4 P. M. 25c To Close

CONTINUOUS
Week Days from 2 Sat. & Sun. from 1
Pictorial — World News

KENNY BAKER IN FILM DEBUT

Kenny Baker, whom every radio fan knows and likes, makes his screen debut as a full-fledged movie star in "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air," a story of a radio singer of his own type, which opens tomorrow at the West Coast theater with a second feature, "Blonde Trouble."

"Mr. Dodd Takes the Air" was adapted from the best-seller by Clarence Budington Kelland, "The Great Crooner." Five new songs are introduced in the picture, written by Al Dubin and Harry Warren. The young crooner has a meaty role as a small-town electrician who suddenly found himself a famous radio star, all because of a throat operation. Preview notices say that the radio artist makes the most of the role, and is a refreshing new character.

Frank McHugh, popular comedian, plays Kenny's press agent; the eccentric humor of Alice Brady is lent to the role of a goofy singer who was to marry the young radio hero; the sly charms of Gertrude Michael animate the vamp role, and the sweet prettiness of Jane Wyman make the heroine's role delightful. Such capable players as Henry O'Neill, Ferris Taylor, Harry Davenport and Linda Perry and prominently cast.

Eleanor Whitney and Johnny Downs, the screen's most appealing pair of young sweethearts, hit the bell for another screen triumph in their new comedy, "Blonde Trouble." The supporting cast includes Terry Walker, Lynne Overman and William Demarest. "Blonde Trouble" is the hilarious tale of a young song-writer about to be "taken" by a gold-digger who imagines he has plenty of money and a ray future. But when it appears that he is a failure, she leaves him just before the wedding. How a noted singer accidentally hears one of the songs and sings it on the air, making the boy a national celebrity, is the theme of the plot.

Selected short subjects on the program include a Merrie Melody cartoon, "Clean Pastures," and World News events.

HOLD 'BLONDE BLUEBEARD'

CINCINNATI (AP) — Police inquiring into the deaths of four elderly men and illnesses of four other elderly persons obtained today from the husband of Mrs. Anna Hahn, 31, formerly a teacher in Germany, a bottle of medicine which Acting Detective Chief Patrick Hayes said might provide a clue to the manner of the men's deaths.

Mrs. Hahn, charged with grand larceny in warrants issued here and in Colorado Springs, and with murder in a warrant signed by a Cincinnati detective, Walter Hart, has been questioned for two days regarding her acquaintance with the men who died.

Hayes said the woman's husband, Philip Hahn, a telegraph operator, had turned over a bottle of medicine to her, which was marked poison but Hayes said it contained an oil. Dr. Otto Behrer, city chemist, said medical authorities agreed it would be fatal if administered in sufficient quantity.

Hayes said Hahn told him he had quarreled with his wife about the bottle and informed police he took the bottle in her absence and placed it in a locker at his office.

Hayes quoted Mrs. Hahn's son, Oscar, 12, as saying Mrs. Hahn purchased railroad tickets for herself, the boy and George Obendorfer, 67, and that they accompanied Obendorfer, a moderately well-to-do Cincinnati cobbler, to Colorado Springs, where he died Aug. 1.

During the trip, Hayes said the boy related, they all ate sandwiches and Obendorfer became ill when they neared the Colorado city. The boy said Obendorfer's illness made him thirsty and that he brought the elderly man numerous glasses of water.

Mrs. Hahn has denied knowledge of the case and contended, Lieut. George W. Schattell said, that she met Obendorfer "by chance" en route west.

The three other deaths under inquiry were those of Jacob Wagner, 78; Albert Palmer, 72, and Ernst Kohler, an elderly teamster who died several years ago. Wagner's body was disinterred a week ago and portions of the viscera are being subjected to tests for poison, Schattell reported.

He said Mrs. Hahn cared for Kohler in his last illness and that she claimed Kohler bequeathed her the $12,000 home in which she has resided with her telegrapher-husband.

George Heis, 63, a coal merchant who said he had been unable to walk since becoming ill from eating food offered by Mrs. Hahn, filed a larceny warrant charging theft of a $75 diamond ring and $140. Mrs. Hahn denied Heis' charge, insisting he gave her the ring during their short acquaintance.

Prosecutor Dudley Miller Outcall said police had learned that Obendorfer, Wagner, Heis, another man and two elderly sisters, Mrs. Ollie Koehler, 79, and Mrs. Mary Arnold, 95, had become ill suddenly shortly after making the acquaintance of Mrs. Hahn.

Lieut. Schattell said Mrs. Hahn admitted signing Wagner's name to a check for $1000, which she presented for payment the day of his death, June 3. The name was written in English, although Wagner could write only in German, Schattell said.

The office also quoted her as admitting asking a Cincinnati Building and Loan association to transfer $1000 of Obendorfer's money to the Denver National bank.

Dr. Willard K. Hills, who at-

A Couple That Get the Air

Lovely Jane Wyman and Kenny Baker, popular radio singer, are shown above in a scene from "Mr. Dodd Takes the Air," which opens an engagement at the West Coast theater tomorrow with a second feature, "Blonde Trouble," with Eleanor Whitney and Johnny Downs.

Award Winner In 'Scarface'

Paul Muni, Academy Award winner for 1936 and famous character actor, is pictured in a scene from "Scarface," sensational gangland picture which returns to Santa Ana tomorrow. It will show at the Walker's theater until Wednesday.

Broadway Melody of 1938 to Open Thursday at West Coast

"Broadway Melody of 1938," a musical from the M-G-M studio, co-starring Robert Taylor and Eleanor Powell, will open an engagement at the West Coast theater next Thursday, it was announced today by Manager Lester J. Fountain.

With the two stars are George Murphy, Dinah Shore, Judy Garland, Charles Igor Gorin, Raymond Walburn, Robert Benchley, Willie Howard, Charles Grapewin, Robert Wildhack and a chorus of lovely dancing girls. Miss Powell proves again in this picture that she is the foremost feminine tap dancer in America. Songs in the picture are catchy and melodious.

Eleanor Powell and Murphy, have a number, "I'm Feeling Like a Million." Gorin sings "Sun Showers" and Taylor joins Miss Powell in "You and Mine." "Miss Ebsen" offers "Pair of New Shoes" and then appears with Murphy and Ebsen in "Follow My Footsteps." She sings and dances again with Sophie Tucker, Judy Garland, Taylor, Murphy Ebsen and Gorin in "Your Broadway and My Broadway."

The screen has never produced such elaborate musical comedy sets before. A 90-ton glass curtain, a replica of the Gotham skyline, and a chorus in cellophane costumes; spectacular race track scenes and gorgeous night club sets flash into view. The plot is substantial. As the daughter of a horse breeder gone broke, Miss Powell backs the last of his racers by working in a night club. Taylor, as a struggling young playwright, buys the horse for her out of sentiment. The horse wins his race, and everyone is repaid.

IT'S TRUE! By Wiley Padan

Eleanor POWELL and GEORGE MURPHY
TAP DANCE IN 5000 GALLONS OF WATER IN THE POURING RAIN FOR A SEQUENCE IN M-G-M'S "BROADWAY MELODY OF 1938"

LEO GARY
A 50-YEAR-OLD TURTLE WAS MAILED TO JUDY GARLAND, 13-YEAR-OLD M-G-M SINGER.

SOPIE TUCKER
WAS BORN ABOARD AN OCEAN LINER, AND ON M. M. AT SEA. FROM OCESSA, FLORIDA, THE HOME OF HER PARENTS.

CHARLES IGOR GORIN
ONCE WORKED AS A BUS BOY IN A SUMMER RESORT IN OBERLIN, OHIO. ENOUGH MONEY TO TAKE SINGING LESSONS.

BUDDY EBSEN
TIES SMALL SAND BAGS TO HIS ANKLES WHILE REHEARSING A DANCE. IT MAKES HIM MUCH LIGHTER ON HIS FEET WHEN HE REMOVES THEM FOR THE "TAKES."

ROBERT TAYLOR
WAS JUST PURCHASED A FIVE GAY-MADE MARK. FIVE MARKS THREE MARKS IN HIS TABLE AT 88 AIR.

PAUL MUNI
WAS JUST PURCHASED A FIVE GAY-MADE MARK. FIVE MARKS THREE MARKS IN HIS TABLE AT 88 AIR.

New York, N. Y. — "IT'S TRUE!" that the world's largest and heaviest curtain appears in the grand finale number of M-G-M's "Broadway Melody of 1938," which depicts Broadway in all its splendor," says Wiley Padan.

"The curtain, composed of solid glass, weighs more than nine tons and is 100 feet wide and 120 feet high! It was designed by art director Cedric Gibbons, and his associate Merrill Pye."

RACKETEERING EPIC STARTS

Racketeering in all its ramifications, particularly that branch which centers its activities in the illicit liquor traffic, is forcibly pictured in "Scarface," the Howard Hughes epic which starts tomorrow at Walker's theater.

The result is a vehicle which for sheer dramatic power has seldom been equaled upon stage or screen, as has been attested by stage and film producers, playwrights and public officials who have witnessed the picture at private previews.

"Scarface" has been brought back to Santa Ana by popular request. Rackets, as newspaper readers have long since learned, are illegal activities organized upon a business basis, and it is the working of this tremendous organization which is pictured so forcibly in "Scarface."

"Scarface" tells of the rise and fall of Tony Camonte, and the leading role is played by Paul Muni, famous character actor. Ann Dvorak has the feminine lead. Others in the cast include William Boyd, Karen Morley and other players of importance.

The second feature on the program will be "Charlie Chan at the Olympics," in which Chan as portrayed by Warner Oland is pitted against the most appalling odds of his career. He sets a new world's record for thrills before a stadium jammed with cheering sport fans.

The bill is complete with a Vitaphone colored pictorial review and world wide news.

'Between 2 Women' Last Performance

For the last time tonight the West Coast theater will present "Between Two Women," starring Franchot Tone, Maureen O'Sullivan and Virginia Bruce, and "Rustler's Valley," twelfth of the popular "Hopalong Cassidy" outdoor action stories.

"Between Two Women" is a modern drama with most of the action taking place within the white walls of a great medical institution.

With William Boyd, George Hayes and Russell Hayden playing

JOAN PLAYING AT THE STATE

Beginning tomorrow and continuing through Tuesday, a fast-moving, dramatic, romantic, and humorous comedy will show at the Walker's State theater. It is Joan Crawford's new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production, "I Live My Life," with Brian Aherne playing opposite and featuring such noted players as Aline MacMahon, Frank Morgan, Eric Blore, Fred Keating, Hedda Hopper, Arthur Treacher, Sterling Holloway and others.

It was directed by W. S. Van Dyke, who has turned out such hits as "Naughty Marietta," "The Thin Man," "Forsaking All Others," and many more.

Dramatic, as the clash of personalities can be, it is also gloriously humorous. Tense moments and gales of laughter follow each other from start to finish.

Miss Crawford, a bored young society girl, cruising the Mediterranean on a yacht, meets, or rather stumbles onto a young archaeologist, at the moment hard at work digging out a priceless statue he has just discovered.

From this beginning anything can happen—and literally everything does before the picture has sped on its laughter compelling conclusion.

With a cast consisting of Robert Armstrong, Lyle Talbot, Fifi Dorsay, Anne Nagle, Donald Meek, and "Man Mountain" Dean, "Three Legionnaires," the second feature, will provide much entertainment. Three happy, hearty, hilarious adventures bring you the laugh hit of the season. The war was over but nobody told them. World news completes the program.

the roles of "Hopalong," "Windy," and "Lucky." "Rustler's Valley" tells of the deceptions of a band of outlaws, in cahoots with a cow town's leading banker, against a number of ranchers.

Selected short subjects on the program include the latest issue of The March of Time, dramatized news of the world; a cartoon, and World News events.

Matinee Daily 1:45 p.m. ENDS TONITE
25c BROADWAY
It's a Panic
TONITE, 8:15-9:00
General Admission 40c
Child 10c, Loges 50c
P. L. — A Grand Down-to-Earth Story of a Kid's Man-Size Fight

TOPPER
MICKY ROONEY
SCHOOLBOY
CARTOON—NEWS

COMING TOMORROW
Continuous From 12:45
Attend Mat. Avoid Nite Crows

What a picture, folks!

ARTISTS and MODELS
ALSO
A Drama of Action Suspense and a Strange Love
WHITE BONDAGE
with Jean Muir
Gordon Oliver
CARTOON
NEWS

JACK BENNY
IDA LUPINO RICHARD ARLEN
GAIL PATRICK
BEN BLUE JUDY GARLAND
YACHT CLUB BOYS
MARTHA RAYE
Artists & Models 1:00-4:15-7:15-10:30 White Bondage 3:15-6:15-9:30

LAST TIMES TONITE
THE DRAMATIC STORY OF A RISING YOUNG SURGEON
"BETWEEN TWO WOMEN"
Franchot Tone, Maureen O'Sullivan, Virginia Bruce

TONITE, 8:15-9:00
General Admission 40c
Child 10c, D. C. 50c

Hopalong Cassidy on the Warpath!
CLARENCE E. MULFORD'S "RUSTLER'S VALLEY"
with
WILLIAM BOYD
GEORGE HAYES
MURIEL EVANS

Tonite—Nagurski vs. Lopez Wrestling Bout
COMING TOMORROW—CONTINUOUS FROM 12:45
20 MILLION RADIO FANS WEREN'T WRONG
HE'S TERRIFIC
KENNY BAKER
IF YOU LAUGHED WHEN "MR. DEEDS" WENT TO TOWN YOU'LL HOWL, WHEN A MUSICAL HIT THAT'S HONEY!
"MR. DODD Takes the Air"
KENNY BAKER • JANE WYMAN
FRANK McHUGH • ALICE BRADY
GERTRUDE MICHAEL

PLUS 2nd FEATURE
"BLONDE TROUBLE"
ELEANOR WHITNEY • JOHNNY DOWNS • LYNNE OVERMAN
TERRY WALKER • BENNY BAKER
COLORTONE CARTOON
WORLD NEWS EVENTS

ADDED ATTRACTION
NAGURSKI vs. LOPEZ WRESTLING BOUT
CHAMPIONSHIP EVENT IN ITS ENTIRETY

SECTION TWO

Santa Ana Journal

SOCIETY CLUBS

VOL. 3, NO. 91

Phone 3600 for the Society Department, Betty Guild, Editor

SANTA ANA, ORANGE COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1937

Rushees Are Honored At Hortons'

Approaching college days were heralded this afternoon when Miss Roberta Horton and her sister, Mrs. Hansel Coulson (Barbara Horton) entertained at a Delta Gamma rush party in the gracious new home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Horton.

Both are members of the prominent Pan-Hellenic college sorority, Miss Horton planning to enter her junior year at the University of Arizona this fall, and Mrs. Coulson being a graduate of the same school and chapter. Their Alma Mater was suitably indicated by the desert motif that was carried out in place-cards and tallies.

Honor guests of the two attractive hostesses at today's affair were debutantes who are planning college careers sometime during the coming twelve months. On the list of rushees were Miss Virginia Curry, who has not yet decided between the Universities of Arizona and Kansas; Miss Helen Andrews who will attend Arizona; Miss Margaret Sawyer who will matriculate at U. C. L. A.; Miss Beverly Williams of Los Angeles who will go to the University of Southern California; Miss Betty Martens of Pasadena, another prospective Arizona; Miss Betty Timmons, and Miss Nancy White. Delta Gamma members who joined the rushees at the zinnia-centered dessert table before the afternoon's contract included Mrs. Britt Bowker (Charlene Lowell) formerly of Santa Ana; Miss Betty Meltenheim, of Santa Ana, a D. G. member at Colorado Springs; Miss Krause of Yorba Linda; Bettina Lambert and Lorraine Slader of Long Beach; the Misses Bianca Magossin, Elsie Gaylord, Doris Harvey, and Betty Tyrell of Pasadena, and the hostesses.

ASSOCIATES HONOR BRIDE-TO-BE

To honor Mrs. Helen Roberts who will be married in the very near future to John Dabney Manning, her associates in the same office building joined to entertain her in the C. J. Raley home, 910 North Flower street, Wednesday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Raley were host and hostess to the group and greeted their guests in a home decorated with a profusion of flowers, including asters, iceland poppies and amaryllis. Refreshments were served from a lace-covered table which was centered with pink and green flowers.

A lovely pair of crystal candlesticks with shades were the gift of the assembled group to the bride-to-be. She is employed as a dental assistant by Dr. Harry C. Clark and is the former Miss Nellie Hershey.

Those attending the informal party complimented Mrs. Roberts were Dr. and Mrs. Harry C. Clark, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence M. Young, Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Jolivet, and Mrs. C. J. Williamson, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Raley, Mrs. J. C. Breckenridge, Miss Wilma Hoy, Miss Edith Watkins and John Manning.

CLUB CONVENES AT YACHT CLUB

A summer party at the Newport Yacht club yesterday was joined by Mrs. L. R. Wilson and her contract club, who enjoyed a pleasant session of contract during the afternoon. A luncheon course was served at tables decorated with pink and lavender asters, and a guest prize went to Mrs. George Veah. Club prizes were won by Mrs. Veah and Mrs. Porter Luther.

A pleasant feature of the day was presentation of little gifts to each member of the club by Mrs. F. H. Pankey, who has just returned from an Hawaiian vacation. Later in the afternoon the group was joined by Mrs. B. J. McReynolds and her house guest, Mrs. Margaret Allen of Dallas and all were taken on a cruise around the bay in the Wilson yacht, "Lestelie."

Present at the delightful affair were Mrs. Guy Dowds, a substitute, Mrs. Pankey, Mrs. Veah, Mrs. Luther, Mrs. Gilbert Martien, Mrs. J. A. Prescott, Mrs. Glenn Warner, and the hostess.

COUPLE LEAVES ON TRIP EAST

Carl Bowers and his mother, Mrs. Cora Bowers, postal clerk in Santa Ana of 612 West Camille street, left yesterday for an extended vacation trip to last for six weeks.

Going first to Yellowstone National park, the couple will stop for several days in Chicago, Niagara Falls, Boston and New York before returning home. Bowers has been employed as second engineer on the Matson liner Aya, but following his vacation he will have a new assignment.

COLLEGE CHUM VISITS HERE

Mrs. Frank Was, 617 Orange avenue, has been entertaining a friend of her college days, Miss Ruth V. Parry of New York City, who will be a her guest for 10 days.

Short trips around Santa Ana, including attendance at a concert in Hollywood bowl, are among the delightful informal affairs being given by Mrs. Was for her guest.

Charming Bride

Gibson-Nail Photo.

Mrs. Fay Harvey was Miss Helen Bennett, daughter of the Harvey Bennetts, prominent pioneer family, until her marriage July 27. She is pictured wearing her lovely heirloom wedding gown which is over a century old.

Chat Awhile With Betty

My boss told me I could break a "big" story this afternoon, ladies. But I confess my modesty is not equal to it. I blush, I faint, I die, and stuff (excuse me Mr. Shelley). But I will not be the first to tell you the magnificent thing that is going to happen next Tuesday. Will you please, instead, all bolster up that insidious element that lurks within the breast of every newspaperman, woman, and child, and let us know that you like chatting awhile with Betty by tuning in your radio next Tuesday morning at 11:30 to KVOE?

You see, my feelings are terribly hurt that no one around this office has even suggested it would be a good thing if the Chatterbox were to have her picture taken and blazoned all across the front page just the day before she started (a la Frank Orr)—but there! I almost let the cat out of the bag.

So guess what! Your answer is as good as mine! . . .

Anyway, here we are at a bright and shining Saturday afternoon again (you'll pardon me if I can't help remembering instead that it's a rather cold and smoky Friday evening, with typewriters banging all around me, and there's only the thought of a comfortable mattress to cheer me on), but it's time to be blithe and gay and chatty.

The funniest item of the week is one that really doesn't bear repeating because it was one of those horrid typographical errors that will happen in the best of regulated families. It just had to do with the announcement of a certain engagement where the young lady's intended was referred to as her "finiance".

Otherwise things have been going along in much the same channels as heretofore. . . .

There were an awful lot of people at Tux and Gown last Saturday night, and many amusing interludes, many of them successfully hidden behind gay organdy skirts and broad white-clothed chests. . . .

Probably the prize brody was that of a certain society editor (name me and you can have me) who, in recounting the personnel of her own party calmly overlooked at least four people who were present! With all due apologies, I refer to the Robert Millers and the George Spielmanns, who were present, and present hearers at my own party, and who were most inconsiderately and inadvertently eliminated from the resultant guest-list. An incomplete list of the Stanley Nortons was likewise due to faulty memories. Many apologies!

Most outstanding anniversary of the week was, I think, that of the Clyde Hills. The lesser half of that charming couple (and I title him thusly only on account of the time-worn cliché) was most ardent in affirming his continued happiness at being no longer the town's most eligible bachelor. Twelve months of matrimony, and he is the most contented of benedicts. . . .

A rumor, too, that the Walter Bacons ticked off another milestone of wedded bliss. They, too, come under the category of Very Nice And Extra Special People.

Conspicuous by their absence at the afore-mentioned dance were the Leland Finleys, the Joel Ogles (he was saying something about whipping up to San Francisco for the week-end) and the Wayne Harrisons. While dazzling everyone with their presence were Doris and Gail Jordan, popular, but most retiring as a rule. . . .

A charming person who should have been met before, because she's very prominent in social and sports circles, is Mrs. George Miles, very gracious in lavender and violet ensemble. Surprisingly, she's enthusiastic on the subject of swing music, and not only can talk authoritatively on dominant sevenths, but can put her knowledge to practical and rhythmic use. . . .

Her husband, too, proved to have a side-hobby of interest. We had a most stimulating talk on the subject of wrestling. I might add that he's the first man with whom I've come in contact that has admitted that that sport surpasses boxing. Consequently, he made a distinct hit. . . .

Last week I discovered the practice of forecasting blessed events—but I can't resist publishing a fact that I haven't seen published in any sports columns. I have it on no less authority than Ed Farnsworth, who is a personal friend of the ex-box-office-Adonis, that Mr. Max Baer will be saluting the world as a father in two months. Mr. Winchell, take note! . . .

While I'm on the subject of dances, it seems appropriate to mention that lots of people have been drifting San Clemente-ward these summer evenings. Glimpsed having lots of fun at the new spot that week were the Joe Danigers, the Paul Ragans, the Harry LeBards, the John Swankes, the John Cannons, the Leon Dickeyes, and the Leslie Steffensens. And Mary Stollensen is probably the most doll-like individual . . . I heard

In the Younger Set

Lower Photo By Le Druce.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Maag this week announced the marriage of their daughter Edwina

B. Melvin Durbin, an event which occurred March 31 at Riverside.

Attractive Miss Janet Diehl has been associated with delightful affairs of the younger set since her

June graduation from the University of California.

Speaking of growing up, little Emily Conner finds herself most bewildered these days, because almost willy-nilly, she's become an Alaskan. Her son, Bill White, dashed back to his Bermuda-blue cottage at Corona del Mar this week from a Florida interlude, and then flew on to the Bay City where he picked up his bride, Gloria, and so back to Santa Ana for some house-keeping.

Mrs. James Irvine is still sojourning in San Francisco, whither Mr. I. has returned after a long Alaskan trek. Their son, Bill White, dashed back to his Bermuda-blue cottage at Corona del Mar this week from a Florida interlude, and then flew on to the Bay City where he picked up his bride, Gloria, and so back to Santa Ana for some house-keeping.

Referring to house-keeping—the cutest knock-knock of the week is one that should have been invented years ago. Picture to yourself a tin bucket, but picture it made of cellophane instead. Picture inverted, and you've got a freshly-invented, waving tresses, gazing blithely upon the world, with never a hair out of place, and stepping lightly heartedly into the most direct of shower-baths. If all the people who have been trying to figure out a soap suds problem in a shower-bath had just concentrated on that much more valuable feminine accessory, wouldn't it have been nice sooner?

Also in reference to house-keeping—the Ted Stephenson has virtually ceased feather-nesting, and all are tucked away in their pretty little home on Lacy street. And the Herbert Allemans are fast becoming the most popular of hosts in their attractive new home, which is a most becoming background to their hospitable nature.

No sooner had Mrs. Ferris Scott finished giving what was quite possibly the most cleverly executed party of the week than the very next day did she proceed to give a second affair, also on a yachting motif, only this time it was the real McCoy. She and her husband have a particularly trim little ship moored in Balboa harbor, and she and several of her friends enjoyed a lounging afternoon aboard the Mer-liee all day Friday.

One of the most attractively turned-out parties of the day before Mrs. L. G. Swales, had put in a very domestic week. At the telephone early Wednesday she confessed that some four crates of peaches were confronting her, and that she could hardly wait to start in steaming, pickling, and jellifying. She is a person who delights in serving delicious food, and a great part of it is of her own concoction, always. Although it's hard to realize when she's hostessing so graciously. . . .

Probably the most exciting event of the week was an experience that befell Miss Beulah May, talented poetess of Santa Ana, who is at present convalescing at St. Joseph's following a most delicate operation on her knee-cap. She hadn't felt up to opening her mail during the day, but along about midnight, feeling wretched, she had an overpowering desire to do so. When she did, she found in one innocent-looking envelope a most substantial prize "having written the most widely-read poem in 'Avon' a popular poetry magazine!" The poem was, in case you're interested, "The Cat Steps Out," about her own pussy, who answers to the name of Thomas Bones. . . .

Speaking of prizes, one very lucky lady this week was Mrs. J. F. Jacoby, who after scoring nothing at all during the afternoon, calmly stepped into one table of contract, and upon making slam after slam, won the first prize. Which is pretty smart playing, it sounds as if. . . .

Two very charming pictures were Mrs. Lou Blodgett, looking exquisite in a rose-colored print dress, a fox fur, and a huge rose picture hat—and Mrs. Ernest Stump, jr., whose jet curls were offset by an electric blue formal evening dress. . . .

Miss Marie Foldes—simply scintillating with rapture over being back in the United States after her European tour. Almost like little Mrs. Joseph Callens with her adorable accent, who after looking forward to a couple of decades to going back to her native Belgium, decided after she'd done it that nothing was as thrilling as returning to Santa Ana! . . .

A couple of other welcome-homes were extended to the Ray Crenshaws, after an extended tour through the Canal—and to Alyce Majors, who returned from a week at Catalina with the most mahogany of complexions imaginable. . . .

Someone with whom it was nice to chat awhile with again was lovely Mrs. Lester Carden. She's been very busy with her family this summer, with an occasional interlude in the mountains. . . .

Questions for the week: Who is to be appointed to the first vice-presidency of Junior Ebell, vacated by the resignation of yours truly this week? And who is the charming young matron who all of a sudden this afternoon found herself the guest of honor at a party she planned to be quite different? . . .

I'll tell you the answers, and a very funny story next week, children. See you next Saturday — and don't forget Tuesday! BETTY GUILD.

Shower Fetes September Bride

To surprise Miss Vivienne Wyne, popular young bride-to-be, a large group of her friends, headed by Mrs. Odelle Jordan and Miss Jean Jordan as hostesses, called at the J. M. Wyne home on Ritchey street last night.

Miss Wyne, a graduate of Tustin high school and Laverne college, is to be married in September to Charles Snow of Los Angeles. She was showered with miscellaneous gifts for her new home by the assembled guests.

A yellow and gold color motif was carried out, with bouquets of soft-shaded zinnias used in decorations. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Ada Clegg and Mrs. Harold Warner for games played during the evening.

Guests who helped to make the evening a festive one for Miss Wyne were the Mesdames Jack Miller, Walter Dunlap, Paul Baker, Charles Baker, Paul Teter, George Lehman, John Ould, Ada Clegg, Marguerite Corbett, Harry Livingston, Ed Teter, Ellsworth Teter, Bryan Anderson of Long Beach, Wilbur Long and A. B. Long of Anaheim.

Mesdames Jack Rimmel and daughter Ruth, Ray Cooney, Theron Cooney, C. D. Carl, Harold Warner and S. T. Warner, Grace Alton, Ruth Rensberger, Beryl Harper of Huntington Beach, Sue Wine, Harold Baker, Mae Teter, Nan Anderson, F. E. Lane, Clarence Lane, Grace Cleveland, Miss Mary Katherine Cooney, Miss Iva Carl, Miss Mary Catherine Teter, and Miss Evelyn Anderson.

Circus days returned for tiny Miss Joan Marie Muckenthaler and her small guests when her mother, Mrs. Albert R. Muckenthaler entertained at a gala birthday party in the Muckenthaler home, 1109 South Van Ness, in honor of Joan Marie's fourth birthday.

The garden of the home was decorated in red, green and yellow, with a sand pile, playhouse, dolls, wagon and tricycle ready for the little guests to play with. A bright balloon was given to each child, and a silver Mickey Mouse spoon was a favor from the birthday child herself.

Refreshments were served at a long table under gay beach umbrellas. A merry-go-round cake decorated with animal crackers, and covered with a striped canopy held the place of honor on the at the guests' places, adding a final touch to the many delicious refreshments.

Included in Joan Marie's party were her little sister, Barbara Louise Muckenthaler, Charles Rockwell, Edna Roseberry, Arlene and Jane Newman, Lois and Joyce Lusk, Dennis Jerry, Beth and Mary Ann Lynch, Bernadette Kellett, Marjorie Peacock of Buena Park, Johnnie Muckenthaler of Anaheim, Mary and Shirley Muckenthaler of Long Beach, Carol Muckenthaler of Anaheim, Carol Price of Orange, Patty Lou Mearns, George Marling, Patty McAuley and Virginia Mae Stack of Hawthorne.

Mothers of the children were Mrs. M. Stutz, Mrs. M. Lynch, Mrs. Martin Muckenthaler, and Mrs. Lawrence Muckenthaler of Anaheim, Mrs. Owen Adair of Long Beach, Mrs. A. Peacock of Buena Park, Mrs. Charles Kellett, Mrs. Ray Price, Orange; Mrs. Sam Fink, John Marling, Mrs. Dan Jerry and Joan Marie's mother, Mrs. Albert Muckenthaler, and grandmother, Mrs. John Rudolph.

Neighbors plan surprise on Mrs. Ryan

Just the desire to honor Mrs. John Ryan with a party was responsible for a happy gathering of neighbors last evening when they got together in the attractive back garden of the Ryan home at 912 Olive street for a stay Dunke and Florence Turner, and the Mesdames Lee Hasenjaeger, Ted Shaw, Karl Seitz, W. H. Adams, Ivan Belman, Carlton Smith, Albert Mencke of Whittier, Barry McPhee of Whittier, and the hostess and honor guest.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie and the Messrs. and Mesdames J. P. Carmack, H. A. Stearns, Ray Snyder, J. R. Benson, Tom Tournant, S. A. Stonebarger, Vincent Horan, young Bruce Snyder and Harold Benson.

Walter Bandick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bandick, 315 Tustin avenue, Orange, will sail Tuesday morning from San Francisco as a cadet on the S. S. Mariposa, bound for a tour of the South Seas.

Bandick will be gone seven weeks, and his trip will include stops at Honolulu, the Samoan islands, the Fiji islands, New Zealand, and Australia. Following a short stop in Los Angeles harbor, the Mariposa will sail from Wilmington at 10 p. m. Wednesday.

Goodwins entertain at dinner

Gathering from many far points, a group of friends were entertained informally at dinner in the H. W. Goodwin home, 522 East Chestnut street, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were assisted by their daughter, Miss Venna Goodwin, and their son, Herman W. Goodwin II, in their entertaining duties.

Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Davison of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Mrs. D. N. Miller and daughter Rachel of Meadville, Penn.; Miss Ruth Wylie of Wooster, Ohio; J. W. Reed of Blairsville, Penn.; Miss Sarah Wylie of Peiping, China; and Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts and daughter Janet Dee of Brea.

Local youth sails Tuesday

Walter Bandick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bandick, 315 Tustin avenue, Orange, will sail Tuesday morning from San Francisco as a cadet on the S. S. Mariposa, bound for a tour of the South Seas.

Bandick will be gone seven weeks, and his trip will include stops at Honolulu, the Samoan islands, the Fiji islands, New Zealand, and Australia. Following a short stop in Los Angeles harbor, the Mariposa will sail from Wilmington at 10 p. m. Wednesday.

Neighbors plan surprise on Mrs. Ryan

Just the desire to honor Mrs. John Ryan with a party was responsible for a happy gathering of neighbors last evening when they got together in the attractive back garden of the Ryan home at 912 Olive street for a stay Dunke and Florence Turner, and the Mesdames Lee Hasenjaeger, Ted Shaw, Karl Seitz, W. H. Adams, Ivan Belman, Carlton Smith, Albert Mencke of Whittier, Barry McPhee of Whittier, and the hostess and honor guest.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie and the Messrs. and Mesdames J. P. Carmack, H. A. Stearns, Ray Snyder, J. R. Benson, Tom Tournant, S. A. Stonebarger, Vincent Horan, young Bruce Snyder and Harold Benson.

Goodwins entertain at dinner

Gathering from many far points, a group of friends were entertained informally at dinner in the H. W. Goodwin home, 522 East Chestnut street, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were assisted by their daughter, Miss Venna Goodwin, and their son, Herman W. Goodwin II, in their entertaining duties.

Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Davison of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Mrs. D. N. Miller and daughter Rachel of Meadville, Penn.; Miss Ruth Wylie of Wooster, Ohio; J. W. Reed of Blairsville, Penn.; Miss Sarah Wylie of Peiping, China; and Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts and daughter Janet Dee of Brea.

Neighbors plan surprise on Mrs. Ryan

Just the desire to honor Mrs. John Ryan with a party was responsible for a happy gathering of neighbors last evening when they got together in the attractive back garden of the Ryan home at 912 Olive street for a stay Dunke and Florence Turner, and the Mesdames Lee Hasenjaeger, Ted Shaw, Karl Seitz, W. H. Adams, Ivan Belman, Carlton Smith, Albert Mencke of Whittier, Barry McPhee of Whittier, and the hostess and honor guest.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie and the Messrs. and Mesdames J. P. Carmack, H. A. Stearns, Ray Snyder, J. R. Benson, Tom Tournant, S. A. Stonebarger, Vincent Horan, young Bruce Snyder and Harold Benson.

Goodwins entertain at dinner

Gathering from many far points, a group of friends were entertained informally at dinner in the H. W. Goodwin home, 522 East Chestnut street, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were assisted by their daughter, Miss Venna Goodwin, and their son, Herman W. Goodwin II, in their entertaining duties.

Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Davison of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Mrs. D. N. Miller and daughter Rachel of Meadville, Penn.; Miss Ruth Wylie of Wooster, Ohio; J. W. Reed of Blairsville, Penn.; Miss Sarah Wylie of Peiping, China; and Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts and daughter Janet Dee of Brea.

Neighbors plan surprise on Mrs. Ryan

Just the desire to honor Mrs. John Ryan with a party was responsible for a happy gathering of neighbors last evening when they got together in the attractive back garden of the Ryan home at 912 Olive street for a stay Dunke and Florence Turner, and the Mesdames Lee Hasenjaeger, Ted Shaw, Karl Seitz, W. H. Adams, Ivan Belman, Carlton Smith, Albert Mencke of Whittier, Barry McPhee of Whittier, and the hostess and honor guest.

Present at the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie and the Messrs. and Mesdames J. P. Carmack, H. A. Stearns, Ray Snyder, J. R. Benson, Tom Tournant, S. A. Stonebarger, Vincent Horan, young Bruce Snyder and Harold Benson.

Goodwins entertain at dinner

Gathering from many far points, a group of friends were entertained informally at dinner in the H. W. Goodwin home, 522 East Chestnut street, last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Goodwin were assisted by their daughter, Miss Venna Goodwin, and their son, Herman W. Goodwin II, in their entertaining duties.

Guests were Dr. and Mrs. Glenn H. Davison of Pittsburgh, Penn.; Mrs. D. N. Miller and daughter Rachel of Meadville, Penn.; Miss Ruth Wylie of Wooster, Ohio; J. W. Reed of Blairsville, Penn.; Miss Sarah Wylie of Peiping, China; and Mr. and Mrs. E. Roberts and daughter Janet Dee of Brea.

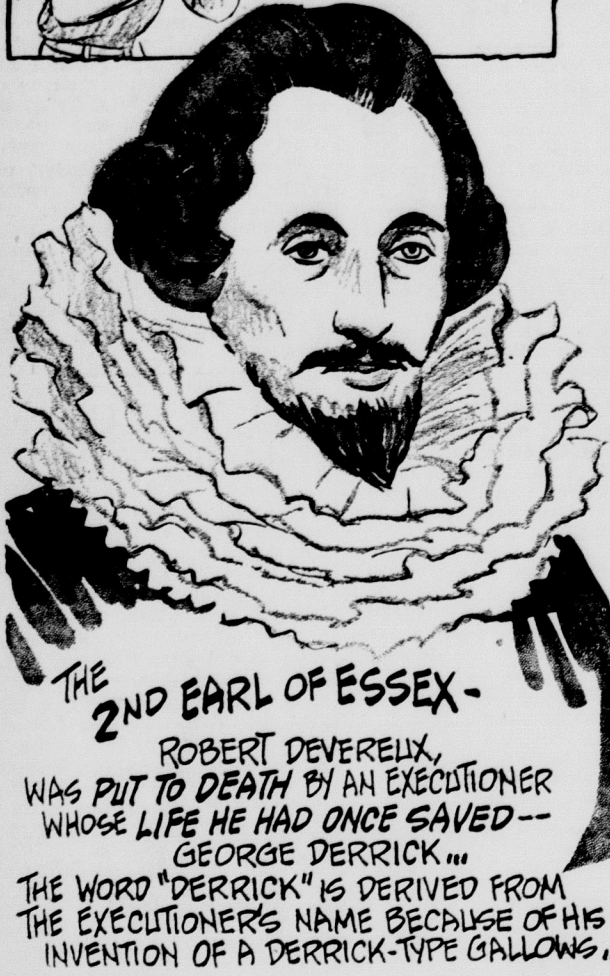

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

By JOHN HIX

WARM ICE IS BETTER FOR SHIPPING VEGETABLES THAN COLD ICE

WILLIAM COLDIRON
IS A BLACKSMITH
AT RATON, N.M.

THE 2ND EARL OF ESSEX—

ROBERT DEVEREUX,
WAS PUT TO DEATH BY AN EXECUTIONER
WHOSE LIFE HE HAD ONCE SAVED—
GEORGE DERRICK

THE WORD "DERRICK" IS DERIVED FROM THE EXECUTIONER'S NAME BECAUSE OF HIS INVENTION OF A DERRICK-TYPE GALLows

300,000,000-YEAR-OLD
MONUMENT, Ada, OKla.
A PETRIFIED CALLIXYLON
TREE STUMP IS A
MEMORIAL TO THE LATE
DR. DAVID WHITE,
EMINENT GEOLOGIST

John Hix
8-14-37

Crossword Puzzle

By LARS MORRIS

- ACROSS
- 1—Solid
 - 11—Trembling
 - 12—Aims of perfection
 - 13—Sun god
 - 14—Book of psalms
 - 15—Pronoun
 - 16—Salutation to Virgin
 - 17—Russian ruler
 - 18—American humorist
 - 19—Female horse
 - 20—Before
 - 21—Hint
 - 22—Gazed fixedly
 - 23—Pressure
 - 24—Self (Scottish)
 - 25—Attention
 - 26—Courageous
 - 27—Chain
 - 28—Male deer
 - 29—Greek letter
 - 30—She (French)
 - 31—Rage
 - 32—Lures
 - 33—That there
 - 34—Public notice
 - 35—Zepplin
 - 36—Pertaining to fasting season
 - 37—Reckless
- ANSWER TO PREVIOUS PUZZLE
- 1—Mischievous child
 - 2—Does (poetic)
 - 3—Removed
 - 4—Eccelesiastical
 - 5—Headlines
 - 6—Daddy
 - 7—Short poems
 - 8—Above (poetic)
 - 9—Slips
 - 10—Trrolley cars
 - 11—Boiled meats
 - 12—Household god
 - 13—Deletion
 - 14—Actively
 - 15—Standing
 - 16—Large container
 - 17—Large deer
 - 18—Golf mound
 - 19—Small bottle
 - 20—Grazed
 - 21—Long for
 - 22—Pretent
 - 23—Runs away
 - 24—Tears
 - 25—It is
 - 26—Funeral carriage
 - 27—Grain storehouse
 - 28—Took dinner
 - 29—Place
 - 30—Negative
 - 31—Prefix: not
- DOWN
- 1—Necktie
 - 2—That man
 - 3—Active ones
 - 4—Repetitions

Copyright 1937 by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.

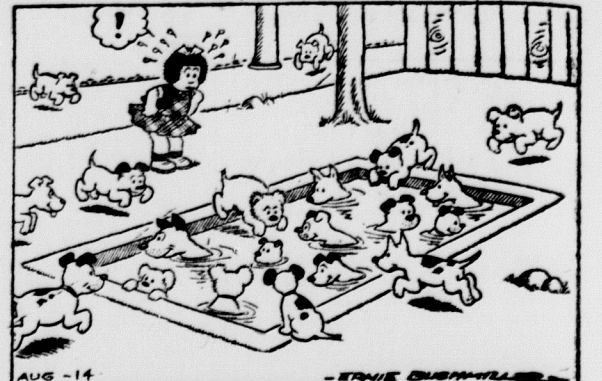

THE GAY THIRTIES

By HANK BARROW

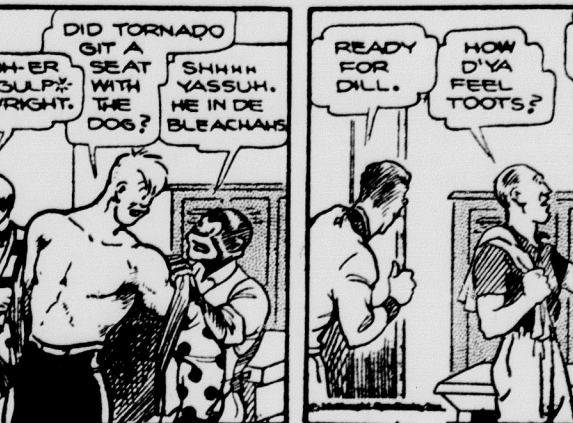

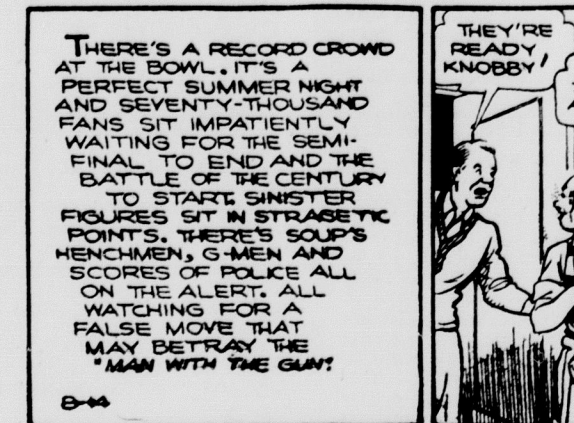

FRITZI RITZ

By ERNIE BUSHMILLER

JOE PALOOKA

By HAM FISHER

DICKIE DARE

By COULTON WAUGH

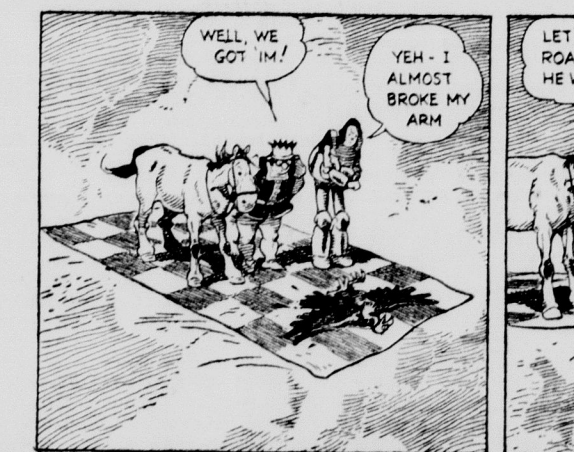

LITTLE MARY MIXUP

By BRINKERHOFF

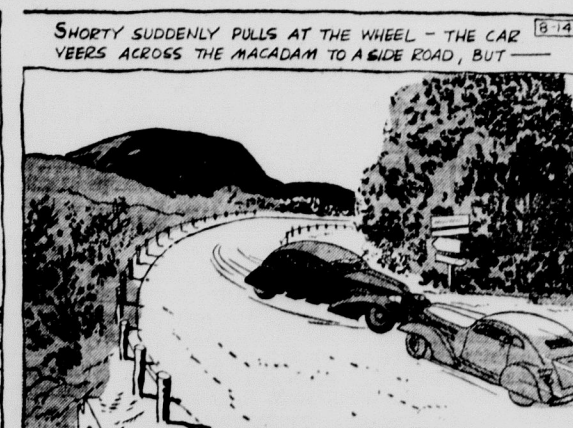

OAKY DOAKS

By R. B. FULLER

THE ADVENTURES OF PATSY

By MEL GRAFT

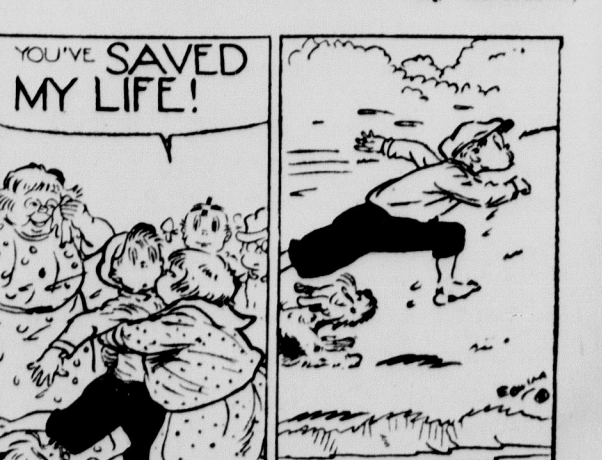

SCORCHY SMITH

By BERT CHRISTMAN

"CAL" STUBBS AND TIPPIE

By EDWINA

Santa Ana Journal
Classified Ads

INDEX TO THIS PAGE

Announcements	I
Employment	II
Financial	III
Real Estate	IV
Business	V
Opportunities	VI
Real Estate	VII
Livestock,	VIII
Poultry, Pets	IX
Misc. for Sale	X
Bus. Services
Autos, Etc.

TRANSIENT RATES

One insertion	10c
Three insertions	25c
Six insertions	40c
Per month	$1.00
Minimum charge	25c

COMMERCIAL RATE
Commercial rate card will be furnished upon request.
Advertisements must appear on consecutive days, without change of copy to earn three, six or monthly insertion rates.

The Santa Ana Journal will not be responsible for more than one incorrect insertion and reserves the right to revise any copy not conforming to set-up rules, or to reject any and all copy deemed objectionable.

JUST CALL 3600

If you are unable to call at The Journal office, telephone 3600, and an experienced ad writer will help you prepare your advertisement.

They are as sick that surfeit with too much,
as they that starve with nothing.
—Shakespeare.

Vol. 3, No. 91

EDITORIAL PAGE

Aug. 14, 1937

This newspaper stands for a reunited people, for independence in all things political, and for honest journalism in its news and editorial columns.

Santa Ana Journal

Published daily except Sunday by John P. Scripps Newspapers at 117 E. Fifth Street, Santa Ana, Calif. Braden Finch, editor; E. F. Eklstrom, business manager.

Subscription rates: By mail, $7.80 a year; by carrier, 65 cents a month; from newsboys and news stands, 3 cents a copy. Entered as second-class matter May 1, 1935, at the postoffice of Santa Ana, California, under the Act of March 3, 1879.

National advertising representatives: West-Holiday Co., Inc., New York, 21 East 40th Street, Chicago, 360 N. Michigan Ave.; San Francisco, 220 Bush Street; Detroit, 319 Stephenson Bldg.; Los Angeles, 433 S. Spring Street; Seattle, 603 Stewart Street; Portland, 320 S. W. Sixth Street; Vancouver, B. C., 711 Hall Bldg.; St. Louis, 413 N. Tenth Street; Atlanta, 925 Grant Bldg. Copies of the Journal may be secured at any of these offices, where full data regarding the Santa Ana market may be had.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to it in this paper, and also the local news published here.

Slippery Neutrality

A serious test of our United States neutrality act, of 1937, may come as a result of the as yet "undeclared" war in China which is raging so terrifically at Shanghai and Nankow.

Under the terms of our neutrality act an embargo must be placed on shipment of munitions to warring countries, and our President may at his discretion place all other commodities on a cash-and-carry basis.

Right now some members of congress are urging the President to invoke the full powers of the act and apply it to the Sino-Japanese situation.

State department officials, on the other hand, do not want the act invoked at least until they have "cleared" our nationals from the danger zone, knowing full well that when the neutrality act goes into effect our diplomatic agents will have little standing with either the Japanese or Chinese war forces.

If and when our neutrality act is clamped down on the Asiatic situation the Chinese are going to be the chief sufferers. Japan has ships and the kind of cash we like—gold—with which to get our cash-and-carry merchandise. The Chinese have neither.

Thus our "neutrality," which we devised on the theory that what happened elsewhere was no concern of ours, may possibly work to the advantage of a definite aggressor, and to the serious disadvantage of a weak nation that is being plundered.

Perhaps it shouldn't be mentioned in a piece of writing concerned with the ethics of an international situation, but there is also an item of $165,000,000 in goods which Japan and China bought from the United States in the first five months of this year.

This editorial is not intended in the least to criticize or belittle the intent back of our neutrality act. It is intended, however, to illustrate how a hard-and-fast neutrality law may bring a result exactly opposite to the result intended.

It is perfectly conceivable in this situation that the United States may be so bound by a pre-commitment that its actual neutrality desires are misrepresented and betrayed.

Hitler has set himself up as an art exponent, and, like some of the moderns, he seems to be spreading it on too thick.

Mr. Webb vs. the Legislature

Attorney General Webb has decided that the Olson bill to regulate oil-drilling in the Huntington Beach field is not an emergency measure even though the legislature intended it to be, and therefore is subject to referendum.

Referendum petitions against both the Olson and O'Donnell bills are being circulated and doubtless will receive the required number of signatures to prevent either becoming the law on Aug. 26. That means a delay until November, 1938.

Estimates of the value of oil in the state-owned field underlying Huntington Beach go as high as half a billion dollars. Continuation of the status quo means millions to the corporations that now control the field, and millions to the state, which would receive large royalties under either the Olson or O'Donnell bills.

In the circumstances, it appears to us that Mr. Webb's clear duty was to defend the intent of the legislature and to let oil company attorneys advance the claim that the Olson bill is not an emergency measure, instead of initiating that opinion himself.

The attorney general having thus placed the state officially against the legislature, we hope that some private party, even if it be an independent oil company selfishly interested, will go to court in a proceedings to test the validity of a referendum.

The futuristic art trend, it is heard, was stimulated by the World war. Next time such possibilities should be considered before hostilities begin.

No More Stomach Aches

Every once in a while a friend will say, "Oh, I ate too much of that once when I was a youngster, and I've never been able to take more than a little bit at a time, since."

Once upon a time there was a boy named Uncle Sam, who, just when he was passing the adolescent stage, played a little too heavily in the stock market.

Uncle Sam is a few years older now, and although right at this moment the stock market has a lure like it has seldom had in all its history, Sam is showing a remarkable restraint and self-control.

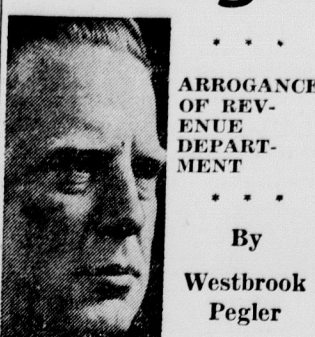

In 1929, Uncle Sam, that is, all of us who lived in the United States, had the fallacious notion that the nation's destiny was inextricably tied to higher stock market prices.

We, that is, Uncle Sam, learned in the few years following that the production and distribution of goods is the healthy activity for an industrial nation, and that skyrocketing stock market prices are only symptoms of a fever that must reach its crisis and break.

We, us and company, are quite likely to stay with the soldier fare of production and distribution now and in the future, partaking very sparingly, if at all, of the alluring but stomach-achey speculation.

A campaign cigar isn't worth a nickel anymore, since most of the new generation gets onto the ropes early.

FAIR Enough

By Westbrook Pegler

NEW YORK.—The United Press has a dispatch out of Washington reporting that the bureau of internal revenue has been instructed to refrain from persecution, and to give everyone a square deal in mopping up the cases against persons accused of employing clever little schemes to avoid income taxes. These instructions come from the treasury department and they prove better than all speeches that have been made and all the protests that have been written, the arrogance of a powerful government department in its dealings with private citizens.

Mr. Roosevelt in his message on the subject of tax avoidance and evasion took the position that only the taxpayers or avoiders could possibly sleep to immoral or unethical practices, and completely ignored the notorious fact that the law enables reviewing agents to persecute individuals for political and personal reasons.

Nevertheless, officials of the treasury have admitted that these discretionary powers in certain income tax matters to approve or disallow deductions, according to their judgment or their personal disposition toward the citizen under review.

POWER TO PERSECUTE

This authority is such that a politician in charge of a revenue district may give an agent private and confidential instructions to harass a political or commercial rival with meddlesome inquiries into matters which are none of the government's business, to pry deep into his personal affairs and, finally, to turn in an arbitrary and vindictive ruling on discretionary items which might just as reasonably be decided the other way. In short, it is a power to persecute.

The instructions to the bureau doubtless were prompted by criticism of the nation which has been encouraged in the personnel of the bureau that they are men to be feared and placated. For years nobody bothered to challenge this bulldozing conduct and some reviewers developed the mental attitude of the old-time pot-bellied cop toward the scullion proprietor of the corner peanut and apple stand.

Not only could they put a man to great expense and trouble in the course of the review, but if they were so inclined they might put him to the necessity of defending himself against unjust and purely spiteful criminal charges.

CHANCE FOR CROOKS

And always there is the opportunity for a crook in the service to compromise a claim in the discretionary zone for a personal cash bribe, a fact which is frankly recognized by the treasury, but minimized on the ground that the men are high-class citizens and themselves subject to departmental espionage. High-class citizens some or most of them may be, but if their character is the taxpayers' protection against unjust treatment, then it is strange that the treasury now should have to give the bureau a special admonition to refrain from persecution.

Very likely in these cases the bureau will make a special effort to be outwardly fair, but inasmuch as Mr. Roosevelt and the treasury department took the attitude that the defendants were guilty of immoral and unethical practice, even before the congressional hearings were started, it is improbable that any decisions will be given in favor of the accused, unless they want to go through expensive court proceedings.

CONVICTED WITHOUT TRIAL

The President and the treasury went out on a limb, convicting these people without trial, and it is hard to imagine a subordinate bureau called for the evening of Aug. 28, to select delegates for the county convention to be voted for at primaries, Sept. 3.

Carrie Burch has petitioned the superior court for an allowance of $50 monthly set apart as a family allowance from the estate of Perry Burch, deceased, and also wants the homestead. The estate is valued at $1846.42.

THE ONLY GIRL

(Sent in by M. L. T.)
First she's in your thoughts a lot
She has many charms;
Soon she's in your motorcar;
Then she's in your arms.
Then she's in your family;
Oh, a lackaday!
Then, of course, for evermore
She is in your way.

Gashouse Gus—Let's go into that restaurant.
Joe Bungstarter—What for?
Gashouse Gus—I know it. But I want to get an overcoat to match the hat I swiped in the other place.

Considering the way some women play contract bridge all afternoon and evening, it is the woman who plays and plays.

"Oh, Fred, the baby has swallowed the matches. What shall I do?"
"Here, use my cigaret lighter."

EVERYDAY MOVIES

"Ever since I heard they're going to give me a three weeks' vacation I've been too excited to work."

FLOWERS

For the Living

A. I. MELLENTHIN, president of the First National Bank, for his enlightening and encouraging outline of business conditions here for the fall and 1938.

Twenty-Five Years Ago

AUG. 14, 1912

SACRAMENTO.—The State Board of Equalization will meet next week for the purpose of setting the rate for the Panama Pacific Exposition tax and it has unofficially announced that the rate this year will be 4 cents and 4 mills on a $100 valuation.

PORTLAND.—"This Pacific coast is the only part of the country, which, to my mind, will definitely have a material benefit from the Panama Canal," said Judge Robert S. Lovett, chairman of the board of the Harriman system, yesterday. The canal will mean a heavy immigration movement into this country; it will result in the bringing of a great volume of labor and it will bring new settlers who will help greatly to develop and build up this country.

At a meeting of the members of the Democratic County Central committee of Santa Ana, caucuses were called for the evening of Aug. 28, to select delegates for the county convention to be voted for at primaries, Sept. 3.

Carrie Burch has petitioned the superior court for an allowance of $50 monthly set apart as a family allowance from the estate of Perry Burch, deceased, and also wants the homestead. The estate is valued at $1846.42.

Journalaffs

By ART SHANNON

Howdy, folks! Another way to get all the pleasures of a campfire without leaving your own home is to—
Sit in front of a smoky fireplace.
Put a handful of pebbles in your shoe.
Stick a sand flea in your hair.

THE ONLY GIRL

(Sent in by M. L. T.)
First she's in your thoughts a lot
She has many charms;
Soon she's in your motorcar;
Then she's in your arms.
Then she's in your family;
Oh, a lackaday!
Then, of course, for evermore
She is in your way.

Gashouse Gus—Let's go into that restaurant.
Joe Bungstarter—What for?
Gashouse Gus—I know it. But I want to get an overcoat to match the hat I swiped in the other place.

Considering the way some women play contract bridge all afternoon and evening, it is the woman who plays and plays.
"Oh, Fred, the baby has swallowed the matches. What shall I do?"
"Here, use my cigaret lighter."

The Merry-Go-Round

By DREW PEARSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

WASHINGTON.—Probably the most fundamental difference between Jack Garner and the leader to whom he swore allegiance at the Philadelphia convention is over the future control of the Democratic party.

The President is determined that he shall play an important part in naming the candidate for 1940, if he does not actually choose the man himself. And Jack Garner is equally determined that he shall not.

The vice president is very blunt about it in private conversations. No one suspects that Jack wants to be a candidate himself, but he does say he is going to see that the candidate is "no New Dealer."

He believes the party should get back to its original fundamentalism.

On the other hand, Roosevelt believes that out of the old Democratic party may be molded a new and rejuvenated organization including labor, the farmers and progressive Republicans.

Some of the President's friends have been wondering of late whether he would not defy third-term tradition and become the candidate of such a reorganized party. But those who are closest to him say he will not, and that his sole motive in not repeating his third-term declaration is to keep the party organization in his own and out of Garner's hands.

Some of them believe that it is a mistake for Roosevelt to remain silent, and that a clear-cut renunciation of third-term ambitions would strengthen rather than weaken his hand. They think it is a mistake to keep the country guessing on this, just as it was a mistake to keep it guessing about immediate or deferred appointment of the new supreme court justice.

So far, however, the President has not seen it that way.

NAVAL RECIPROCITY

The bill permitting the President to lend over-aged U. S. destroyers to Latin American countries whose vote the administration can always count on.

It was initiated chiefly for the benefit of Brazil, because that country twice had placed its naval forces at the disposal of the United States.

First instance was during the Spanish-American war. Brazil just taken delivery on two new cruisers, built in British shipyards, and immediately turned them over to the United States. They were manned by American crews, and one of them, rechristened U. S. S. Buffalo, played an important part in the war against Spain.

Again during the World war, Brazil sent two cruisers and four destroyers to serve under the American naval command off Gibraltar.

The number of destroyers which the United States now plans to lend Brazil is six.

Note: During the Spanish-American war most of Latin America, being of Spanish descent, was sympathetic with that country. Brazil, being Portuguese, was not.

LABOR RELATIONS

Two surprise opinions regarding the national labor relations board were expressed the other day, both by Republicans, but of diametrically opposite effect.

One came from Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, who was Coolidge's secretary of the navy and is a brother of Hoover's secretary of the interior, Ray Lyman Wilbur. Judge Wilbur, although of conservative

JOHNSON, COURT REFORM

To the Editor: On this page lately appeared an editorial from the Orange Daily News, praising Senator Johnson for opposing supreme court reform.

Hiram Johnson deserved much credit for the fight he made in 1910, as the Lincoln-Roosevelt League's candidate for governor, and for his record as governor. He not only attacked machine politics and crime, but he had trenched corporations which had corrupted and looted the state; and he proclaimed his republicanism to be that of Robert M. La Follette, Jonathan P. Dolliver and Theodore Roosevelt.

He was not a pioneer Progressive. Compared to the oaks, Bryn Mawr, La Follette, Norris, Walsh, Dolliver or Col. Roosevelt, it is apparent Johnson, Borah and Wheeler are only "second growth" timber. The latter each won honors in fights for progressive principles, the virtues of which had already been established by abler men.

In 1912 Johnson, as candidate for vice president, conducted a campaign on the Progressive platform which stood for recall of supreme court decisions by the direct vote of the people—the most radical court program ever advocated in this country. Incidentally, the Roosevelt-Johnson ticket carried California.

There was some justification for that advanced position. The supreme court, packed with former corporation lawyers had perverted the Fourteenth amendment of the Constitution—enacted to confer civil rights on former slaves and to prevent the states from infringing upon them—to an instrument to prevent the states from regulating rates of public utilities and other corporations; and had also declared the income tax unconstitutional.

Willie Van Devanter, in 1911, at the instance of Senators Warren, Crane, Aldrich, Penrose and other reactionaries, was appointed to the supreme court, although utterly unfit.

In 1919 Senator Johnson supported the bill authorizing appointment by the President of a district judge or circuit court of appeals judge when acting judge was over 70 years of age and physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. Senator Cummins, of Iowa, was interrupted by Senator Sutherland, of Utah—now a member of the supreme court—in fact that district judges and circuit judges might be assigned from other districts, while supreme court justices might not, there were stronger reasons in favor of such a bill relating to supreme court justices.

Senator Cummins admitted, "Constitutionally, the supreme court of the United States can be dealt with in precisely the same way as the circuit court or the district court may be dealt with, and that there were 'more persuasive reasons' for keeping the supreme court full of able men."

There was the additional reason that appeals may be made from district or circuit courts, but none from the supreme court.

Another reason exists: Never were a majority of the district judges or of circuit judges above 77 years of age, or over 75 years of age, or even near that age.

Every fact and reason that prompted Senator Johnson to favor court reform in 1912 and in 1919, existed in favor of supreme court reform in 1937; and numerous additional and stronger reasons earlier existed or arose after 1919.

The flagrant Fourteenth amendment decision was reaffirmed in 1937. Justices Van Devanter, Brandeis, McReynolds, Butler, and Sutherland—equally unfit for justices—had been appointed. All seemed bent on using the Constitution as a barrier against reform and progress.

A majority of the supreme court justices in the spring of 1937 averaged over 77 years of age, an unprecedented number; and since 1919 the supreme court adopted the system of arbitrarily denying the right to be heard in 85 per cent of attempted appeals.

In the presence of the most extraordinary, practically changing economic, industrial and social conditions in the history of the world, Justices Van Devanter, McReynolds, Butler and Sutherland either were unaware of such changes, or ignored them.

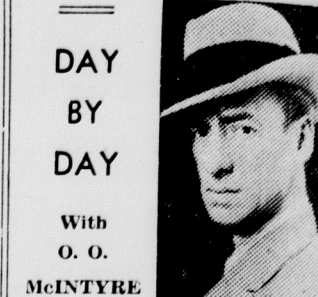

Senator Johnson might have been wrong in his attitude in 1912 and in 1919, yet right in 1937, if he had supported the supreme court reform bill; but it is not possible that he was right in 1912 and 1919, and still be right in 1937 in opposing supreme court reform.

The senator, by his recent attitude, indicated either that he has forsaken the progressive principles he espoused in 1912 and 1919, or else that he never had any progressive principles in national affairs to which he was loyally devoted.

SHARPLESS WALKER

A new shoe for yachtsmen is said to be skid-proof in wet, slippery weather. Hundreds of tiny zigzag cuts on the gum-rubber sole make this shoe absolutely faultless. Slight pressure on the sole opens the cuts to create suction and provide action that prevents slipping.

WHIMSIES

DAY BY DAY With O. O. McINTYRE

NEW YORK.—It is a treat now and then to sit at Lindy's or Ditty Moore's as night wanes into dawn and kibitz the table sitters in their remembering-when. Tales of the actors and boulevardiers when Broadway was a roister with romance. A rechauffe of gone galantries.

Such as: Maud Adams registered in one hotel suite and slept in another to avoid interviewers. Stories of the million dollar failure, Cafe de l'Opera. How the old Waldorf was the first hotel to make a cover charge for bread and butter and the howl that followed.

When the St. Regis opened it was classed as the world's most magnificent inn. E. R. Thomas, race track plunger, slept in a suite that had $10,000 twin beds. When Harry Lauder was on tour, his wife made mutton broth for him twice a week. He liked a complete meal of this dish.

Three men profess to have heard Valentino one night, over after their program, ever advocated in this country. Incidentally, the Roosevelt-Johnson ticket carried California.

There was some justification for that advanced position. The supreme court, packed with former corporation lawyers had perverted the Fourteenth amendment of the Constitution—enacted to confer civil rights on former slaves and to prevent the states from infringing upon them—to an instrument to prevent the states from regulating rates of public utilities and other corporations; and had also declared the income tax unconstitutional.

Willie Van Devanter, in 1911, at the instance of Senators Warren, Crane, Aldrich, Penrose and other reactionaries, was appointed to the supreme court, although utterly unfit.

In 1919 Senator Johnson supported the bill authorizing appointment by the President of a district judge or circuit court of appeals judge when acting judge was over 70 years of age and physically or mentally unable to perform his duties. Senator Cummins, of Iowa, was interrupted by Senator Sutherland, of Utah—now a member of the supreme court—in fact that district judges and circuit judges might be assigned from other districts, while supreme court justices might not, there were stronger reasons in favor of such a bill relating to supreme court justices.

Senator Cummins admitted, "Constitutionally, the supreme court of the United States can be dealt with in precisely the same way as the circuit court or the district court may be dealt with, and that there were 'more persuasive reasons' for keeping the supreme court full of able men."

There was the additional reason that appeals may be made from district or circuit courts, but none from the supreme court.

Another reason exists: Never were a majority of the district judges or of circuit judges above 77 years of age, or over 75 years of age, or even near that age.

Every fact and reason that prompted Senator Johnson to favor court reform in 1912 and in 1919, existed in favor of supreme court reform in 1937; and numerous additional and stronger reasons earlier existed or arose after 1919.

The flagrant Fourteenth amendment decision was reaffirmed in 1937. Justices Van Devanter, Brandeis, McReynolds, Butler, and Sutherland—equally unfit for justices—had been appointed. All seemed bent on using the Constitution as a barrier against reform and progress.

A majority of the supreme court justices in the spring of 1937 averaged over 77 years of age, an unprecedented number; and since 1919 the supreme court adopted the system of arbitrarily denying the right to be heard in 85 per cent of attempted appeals.

In the presence of the most extraordinary, practically changing economic, industrial and social conditions in the history of the world, Justices Van Devanter, McReynolds, Butler and Sutherland either were unaware of such changes, or ignored them.

Senator Johnson might have been wrong in his attitude in 1912 and in 1919, yet right in 1937, if he had supported the supreme court reform bill; but it is not possible that he was right in 1912 and 1919, and still be right in 1937 in opposing supreme court reform.

The senator, by his recent attitude, indicated either that he has forsaken the progressive principles he espoused in 1912 and 1919, or else that he never had any progressive principles in national affairs to which he was loyally devoted.

SHARPLESS WALKER

A new shoe for yachtsmen is said to be skid-proof in wet, slippery weather. Hundreds of tiny zigzag cuts on the gum-rubber sole make this shoe absolutely faultless. Slight pressure on the sole opens the cuts to create suction and provide action that prevents slipping.

LABOR RELATIONS

Two surprise opinions regarding the national labor relations board were expressed the other day, both by Republicans, but of diametrically opposite effect.

One came from Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, who was Coolidge's secretary of the navy and is a brother of Hoover's secretary of the interior, Ray Lyman Wilbur. Judge Wilbur, although of conservative

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?

But it isn't. It's just 600 men trying to get 300 jobs in a Hollywood film factory where a pirate picture is in the making.

Now many localities in the nation haven't enough jobs to go around. Others, it seems, have too many jobs. Adjustment of such situations is the task of social scientists, engineers and economists. Furthermore, it may be only another phase of "going Hollywood" when 600 men risk broken bones and scuffed shins to get into a single picture.

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?

But it isn't. It's just 600 men trying to get 300 jobs in a Hollywood film factory where a pirate picture is in the making.

Now many localities in the nation haven't enough jobs to go around. Others, it seems, have too many jobs. Adjustment of such situations is the task of social scientists, engineers and economists. Furthermore, it may be only another phase of "going Hollywood" when 600 men risk broken bones and scuffed shins to get into a single picture.

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?

But it isn't. It's just 600 men trying to get 300 jobs in a Hollywood film factory where a pirate picture is in the making.

Now many localities in the nation haven't enough jobs to go around. Others, it seems, have too many jobs. Adjustment of such situations is the task of social scientists, engineers and economists. Furthermore, it may be only another phase of "going Hollywood" when 600 men risk broken bones and scuffed shins to get into a single picture.

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?

But it isn't. It's just 600 men trying to get 300 jobs in a Hollywood film factory where a pirate picture is in the making.

Now many localities in the nation haven't enough jobs to go around. Others, it seems, have too many jobs. Adjustment of such situations is the task of social scientists, engineers and economists. Furthermore, it may be only another phase of "going Hollywood" when 600 men risk broken bones and scuffed shins to get into a single picture.

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?

But it isn't. It's just 600 men trying to get 300 jobs in a Hollywood film factory where a pirate picture is in the making.

Now many localities in the nation haven't enough jobs to go around. Others, it seems, have too many jobs. Adjustment of such situations is the task of social scientists, engineers and economists. Furthermore, it may be only another phase of "going Hollywood" when 600 men risk broken bones and scuffed shins to get into a single picture.

But whatever the social, industrial or economic significance of the incident, it is at least a re-freshing change when workers rather than to see who does not go to work.

What Other Editors Say

(San Diego Sun)

Fighting groups of men. Swinging fists. Swollen jaws and black eyes. And charging police. Sounds like another scramble on a strikers' picket line, doesn't it?